Information Collection Request

Title: Labeling Requirements in 33 CFR parts 181 and 183 and 46 CFR 25.10-3.

OMB Control Number: 1625-0056.

Summary: Title 46 U.S.C. 4310 gives the Coast Guard the authority to require manufacturers of recreational boats and certain items of associated equipment to comply with Coast Guard regulations. Parts 181 and 183 of 33 CFR, and 46 CFR 25.10-3 contain the regulations and safety standards authorized by the statutes which apply to manufacturers of recreational boats, uninspected commercial vessels and associated equipment. The regulations and safety standards contain information collections, which require boat and associated equipment manufacturers, importers and the boating public to apply for serial numbers and to display various labels evidencing compliance.

Need: The Coast Guard needs the information required by 33 CFR parts 181 and 183 and 46 CFR 25.10-3 displayed on the labels to identify the manufacturer of each recreational boat manufactured or imported; to provide the prospective owners/operators of certain recreational boats and uninspected commercial vessels information concerning safe loading and/or safe powering information; to alert the operators of recreational boats and uninspected commercial vessels with permanently installed gasoline engines about the need to ventilate the engine compartment before starting the engine; and to ensure that associated equipment used on recreational boats and uninspected commercial vessels meets applicable Coast Guard safety standards.

Respondents: Manufacturers of recreational boats and associated equipment.

Frequency: One time per boat.

Burden Estimate: The estimated burden has increased from 385,408 hours to 395,107 hours a year.

Dated: November 17, 2006.

R. T. Hewitt,

Rear Admiral, Assistant Commandant for Command, Control, Communications, Computers and Information Technology.

Ship Security Alert System Notices

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Coast Guard announces a change in the e-mail address that U.S. vessels equipped with a Ship Security Alert System (SSAS) can use to send emergency notices to the Coast Guard when their security is threatened. In these emergencies, a vessel notifies the Coast Guard of the incident directly or through a third party. The SSAS notice may be communicated through various media. If it is sent as an e-mail, it must be sent to the new address: ssas@uscg.mil.

DATES: The new e-mail address is already functional. The current e-mail address will continue to accept Ship Security Alert System notices in the near term. All equipment must use the new e-mail address before May 2007.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: If you have questions regarding this notice, call LT Frances Fazio, U.S. Coast Guard, telephone 202-372-1235 or via e-mail frances.fazio@uscg.mil.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Certain U.S. vessels must comply with the requirement of the International Convention of Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS), Regulation XI-2/6, that the vessel must be fitted with an SSAS. The Coast Guard provides guidance on implementing this requirement, in Enclosure 5 of Navigation and Vessel Information Circular (NVIC) 04-03, available on the Internet at <http://> www.uscg.mil/hq/g-m/nvic/03/NVIC_04-03_CH-1.pdf. SSAS notices can be provided through various media. The Coast Guard recently upgraded some of its internal communication systems, and as part of the upgrade, SSAS notices sent via e-mail will be redundantly routed so that a notice will reach the Coast Guard even if one Coast Guard computer network fails. The upgrade also required the revision of all Coast Guard e-mail addresses. Any vessel owner or operator whose SSAS relies on e-mail must make sure their equipment is updated with the new address, ssas@uscg.mil, and must correct the address ("pen and ink" will suffice) in the vessel's approved vessel security plan or SSAS annex. Include the new e-mail address in your next plan or SSAS annex submission to the Coast Guard's Marine Safety Center; but if this is the only change you are making to an approved plan or annex, you do not need to resubmit the plan or annex for re-approval, solely for that reason.
