SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

GSA is beginning the review and update of the General Services Administration Acquisition Regulation (GSAR). The GSAR is the regulatory part of the General Services Administration Acquisition Manual (GSAM). The GSAM contains both regulatory and non-regulatory acquisition guidance. The GSAR contains GSA's agency acquisition policies and practices, contract clauses, solicitation provisions, and forms that control the relationship between GSA and contractors and prospective contractors. The GSAM can be found online at www.acqnet.gov/GSAM/gsam.html. The regulatory parts making up the GSAR are the shaded parts of the document at this site. In this ANPR, GSA is seeking comments on the regulatory, or shaded parts, only.

Revisions to the GSAR are necessary to maintain consistency with the FAR, and to implement streamlined and innovative acquisition procedures that contractors, offerors and GSA contracting personnel can utilize when entering into and administering contractual relationships.

In this effort, GSA is asking industry and other interested parties, including Government personnel, to submit suggestion on which parts of the GSAR—

- Should be clarified to provide consistency with the FAR;

- Should be eliminated because they duplicate the FAR or create inconsistencies within the GSAR;

- Have inappropriate references listed to indicate the basis for the regulation;

- Have become irrelevant because of changes in technology or business processes;

- Place unnecessary administrative burdens on contractors and the Government;
- Can be streamlined or simplified;
- Need to be revised to provide new and/or augmented coverage; and
- Unnecessarily impose an adverse significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

Interested parties are requested to provide a rationale for their recommendation and, if possible, suggested language or examples.

This is not a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

Dated: February 10, 2006.

Roger D. Waldron,

*Acting Senior Procurement Executive,
General Services Administration.*
