DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before July 29, 1996.ADDRESSES: Information Collection Clearance Officer, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Mail Stop 224-Arlington Square, 1849 C Street, NW, Washington, DC 20240.FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Phyllis H. Abstract: The Wild Bird Conservation Act of 1992 (WBCA) authorizes the Service to issue permits for the importation of individual exotic birds from otherwise prohibited species for the following purposes (after a finding that such imports are not detrimental to the species' survival): scientific research; personally owned pets of individuals returning to the United States after being out of the country for a least one year; zoological breeding or display programs; and cooperative breeding programs designed to promote the conservation of the species in the wild, that are developed and administered by organizations meeting certain standards. The information required on the application is used by the Service to determine if an applicant should be granted a permit to import an exotic bird under the provisions of the WBCA. This proposed amendment will change this requirement by providing for applications that will be submitted by foreign governments and foreign breeding facilities, in accordance with recently enacted regulations to implement the WBCA. This proposed amendment does not affect existing information collection requirements for scientific research, personal pets, zoological breeding or display, or cooperative breeding, in any way.
