Electroluminescent High Information Content Flat Panel Displays and Display Glass Therefor From Japan; Notice of Court Decision and Rescission of Revocation of Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of court decision and rescission of revocation of antidumping duty order.

SUMMARY: On August 25, 1994, the Department of Commerce (the Department) published a notice of revocation of the antidumping duty order on electroluminescent (EL) high information content flat panel displays (FPDs) and display glass therefor from Japan (see Electroluminescent High Information Content Flat Panel Displays and Display Glass Therefor from Japan;

Amendment of Notice of Court Decision and Revocation of Antidumping Duty Order, 59 FR 43809 (Aug. 25, 1994)) pursuant to a mandamus order to enforce judgment issued by the United States Court of International Trade (the CIT) in Hosiden Corporation v. United States, 861 F. Supp. 115 (CIT August 12, 1994) (Hosiden II). In Hosiden II, the CIT ordered the Department to suspend liquidation of entries, but to otherwise reverse all action taken by the Department pursuant to its determination of sales at less-than-fair value, in order to implement its earlier decision affirming the International Trade Commission's (ITC's) negative injury determination on remand (Hosiden Corporation v. United States, 852 F. Supp. 1050 (CIT April 14, 1994) (Hosiden I). The Department appealed the CIT's mandamus order and, on May 31, 1996, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (the Federal Circuit) held that the mandamus order was contrary to law and, thus, vacated the CIT's mandamus order in Hosiden Corp., et al. v. United States, Appeal No. 95-1027 (Fed. Cir. May 31, 1996). Therefore, we are now rescinding the revocation of the antidumping duty order on EL FPDs from Japan, reinstating the suspension of liquidation of entries of EL FPDs from Japan pursuant to the Department's May 6, 1994 notice of court decision and suspension of liquidation (59 FR 23690), and reinstating the collection of cash deposits on EL FPDs from Japan as of the date of this notice.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 31, 1996.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Chip Hayes or Richard Rimlinger of Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20230; telephone: (202) 482-4733.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On September 4, 1991, the Department published an antidumping duty order on EL FPDs (56 FR 43937) following an affirmative determination of sales at less-than-fair value by the Department on July 16, 1991 (56 FR 32376) and an August 26, 1991 decision by the ITC that a U.S. industry was being materially injured by reason of imports of flat panel displays and display glass therefor from Japan (56 FR 43937, September 5, 1991). Exporters of EL FPDs appealed the ITC determination to the CIT. The CIT remanded the determination to the ITC to reconsider its injury determination, and on March 8, 1993, the ITC determined on remand that no U.S. industry was being materially injured by reason of imports of EL FPDs. The ITC's remand was affirmed by the CIT on April 14, 1994, in Hosiden I. In accordance with the decision of the Federal Circuit in Timken v. United States, 893 F.2d 337 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (Timken), the Department published a notice on May 6, 1994 (59 FR 23690) stating that the Department would continue to order the suspension of liquidation of the subject merchandise and that "[i]f the case is not appealed, or is affirmed on appeal, then the antidumping duty order on EL FPDs will be revoked."

Subsequently, on August 12, 1994, the CIT issued a decision and mandamus order in Hosiden II requiring that the Department: (1) direct the U.S. Customs Service to cease the collection of cash deposits for estimated antidumping duties on EL FPDs and return any previously collected cash deposits; (2) end any previously ordered suspension of liquidation and suspend the liquidation of entries of EL FPDs in accordance with the CIT's Preliminary Injunction order, dated January 20, 1994; (3) refrain from imposing any further obligation on any party involved in any administrative review by the Department relating to EL FPDs; and (4) execute all documents and take all necessary actions to effectuate a revocation of the antidumping duty order. On August 25, 1994, the Department published the revocation of the antidumping duty order on EL FPDs (59 FR 43809, August 25, 1994) and took all other action required by the CIT's mandamus order.

The Department then appealed the CIT's August 12, 1994 decision and mandamus order to the Federal Circuit. On May 31, 1996, the Federal Circuit issued a decision that held that the August 12, 1994 mandamus order was contrary to law, and vacated the CIT's mandamus order. Hosiden Corp., et al. v. United States, Appeal No. 95-1027 (Fed. Cir. May 31, 1996). On July 22, 1996, the Federal Circuit issued a mandate finalizing its May 31, 1996 decision in Appeal No. 95-1027.

On May 31, 1996, the Federal Circuit also rendered a decision in a related case concerning the ITC's injury determination with respect to EL FPDs from Japan. In Advanced Display Manufacturers Assn. v. United States, Appeal No. 94-1380 (Fed. Cir. May 31, 1996), the Federal Circuit vacated the CIT's decision in Hosiden I with respect to the ITC's injury determination on remand, and remanded the matter for appropriate further proceedings. Thus,
