

the new chemical substance described below, under the conditions set out in the TME application, and for the time period and restrictions specified below, will not present an unreasonable risk of injury to human health or the environment. Production volume, use, and the number of customers must not exceed that specified in the application. All other conditions and restrictions described in the application and in this notice must be met.

A notice of receipt of the application was not published in advance of approval. Therefore, an opportunity to submit comments is being offered at this time. EPA may modify or revoke the test marketing exemption if comments are received which cast significant doubt on its finding that the test marketing activities will not present an unreasonable risk of injury.

The following additional restrictions apply to TME-96-9. A bill of lading accompanying each shipment must state that the use of the substance is restricted to that approved in the TME. In addition, the applicant shall maintain the following records until five years after the date they are created, and shall make them available for inspection or copying in accordance with section 11 of TSCA:

1. Records of the quantity of the TME substance produced and the date of manufacture.
2. Records of dates of the shipments to each customer and the quantities supplied in each shipment.
3. Copies of the bill of lading that accompanies each shipment of the TME substance.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

[Notice 1996-18]

Filing Dates for the Texas Special Elections

AGENCY: Federal Election Commission.

ACTION: Notice of Filing Dates for Special Elections.

SUMMARY: Texas has scheduled special elections on November 5 and December 10 based on an order by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas in Vera et al. v. Bush et al., which redrew the boundaries, invalidated the results of primary and runoff elections, and ordered new elections in thirteen of the thirty U.S. Congressional Districts of Texas. The districts affected are: 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 18, 22, 24, 25, 26, 29, and 30.

Committees required to file reports in connection with the Special General Election on November 5 should file an October Quarterly Report on October 15; a Pre-General Report on October 24; a Post-General Report on December 5; and a Year-End Report on January 31, 1997. Committees required to file reports in connection with both the Special General and Special Runoff Election to be held on December 10, must file an October Quarterly Report; a Pre-General Report; a Pre-Runoff Report on November 29; and a consolidated Post-Runoff & Year-End Report on January 9, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ms. Bobby Werfel, Information Division, 999 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20463, Telephone: (202) 219-3420; Toll Free (800) 424-9530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: All principal campaign committees of candidates in the Special General Election only and all other political committees not filing monthly which support candidates in the Special General Election shall file an October Quarterly Report on October 15, with coverage dates from the close of the last report filed, or the date of the committee's first activity, whichever is later, through September 30; and a 12-day Pre-General Report on October 24, with coverage dates from October 1 through October 16. If there is a majority winner, committees must also file a Post-General Report on December 5, with coverage dates from October 17 through November 25 and a Year-End Report on January 31, 1997, with coverage dates from November 26 through December 31, 1996.

In the event that no candidate receives a majority of the votes in the Special General Election, a Special Runoff Election will be held on December 10, 1996. All principal campaign committees of candidates in the Special General and Special Runoff Elections and all other political committees not filing monthly which support candidates in these elections shall file an October Quarterly Report on October 15, with coverage dates from the close of the last report filed, or the day of the committee's first activity, whichever is later, through September 30; a 12-day Pre-General Report on October 24, with coverage dates from October 1 through October 16; a Pre-Runoff report on November 29, with coverage dates from October 17 through November 20; and a consolidated Post-Runoff & Year-End Report on January 9, 1997, with coverage dates from November 21 through December 31, 1996.

If two elections are held, all principal campaign committees of candidates in the Special General Election only and all other political committees not filing monthly which support candidates in the Special General Election only shall file an October Quarterly Report on October 15, with coverage dates from the close of the last report filed, or the date of the committee's first activity, whichever is later, through September 30; a 12-day Pre-General Report on October 24, with coverage dates from October 1 through October 16; and a Year-End Report on January 31, 1997, with coverage dates from October 17 through December 31, 1996.

All political committees not filing monthly which support candidates in the Special Runoff only shall file a 12-day Pre-Runoff Report on November 29, with coverage dates from the last report filed or the date of the committee's first activity, whichever is later, through November 20, and a consolidated Post-Runoff & Year-End Report on January 9, 1997, with coverage dates from November 21 through December 31, 1996.
