El Paso states that in the Final Rule, the Commission adopted the Gas Industry Standards Board (GISB) standards and amended its Regulations. El Paso states that it is filing to revise its Tariff to conform to the GISB.

El Paso also requested waiver of the Commission's Regulations, as necessary, to allow El Paso and its shippers to defer implementation of GISB Standard 1.3.1 until April 6, 1997. El Paso states that without grant of this waiver, El Paso and its shippers would be required to adjust the gas on April 1, 1997 and again five days later on April 6, 1997 to reflect the springtime adjustment to Daylight Savings Time.

El Paso states that copies of the filing were served upon all of El Paso's interstate pipeline system sales and transportation customers and interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations on or before October 22, 1996. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Florida Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Filing of Pro Forma Tariff Sheets

October 4, 1996.

Take notice that on October 1, 1996, Florida Gas Transmission Company (FGT) tendered for filing the pro forma tariff sheets listed on Attachment A to the filing.

FGT states that the instant filing is in compliance with the provisions of Order No. 587 issued July 17, 1996 in Docket No. RM96-1-000 and sets forth the proposed changes to FGT's tariff required to implement the Standards of the Gas Industry Standards Board (GISB). FGT states that, in compliance with Order No. 587, it will file the final tariff sheets implementing the GISB standards to become effective on April 1, 1997.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with the Commission's Rules and Regulations and Order No. 587. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations on or before October 22, 1996. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Koch Gateway Pipeline Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

October 4, 1996.

Take notice that on October 2, 1996, Koch Gateway Pipeline Company (Koch) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fifth Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheet, to become effective November 1, 1996:

First Revised Sheet No. 720

Koch states that the proposed sheet is being filed to modify the boundaries of Koch's Pooling Areas on Koch's Pooling map to reflect actual operating conditions. The physical pooling locations will remain intact. The map revision will simplify the management of pooling transactions for both Customers and Koch.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's rules and regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided by Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

First Revised Sheet No. 20
First Revised Sheet No. 21
First Revised Sheet No. 25
First Revised Sheet No. 26
First Revised Sheet No. 64
First Revised Sheet No. 81
First Revised Sheet No. 100

Midwestern states that the revised tariff sheets reflect conforming changes to Midwestern's tariff to permit Midwestern to charge negotiated rates for its transportation and storage services in accordance with the Statement of Policy issued on January 31, 1996 in Docket No. RM95-6-000 (74 FERC ¶ 61,076).

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211). All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public
