

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of NordicTrack who were adversely affected by imports.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers separated from NordicTrack, St. Peter, Minnesota.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-32,707 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of NordicTrack, Chaska, Minnesota (TA-W-32,707) and NordicTrack, St. Peter, Minnesota (TA-W-32,707C) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 22, 1995 through two years from the date of certification are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 4th day of November 1996.

Russell T. Kile,

Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Oakloom Clothes, Incorporated
Baltimore, Maryland; Notice of Negative Determination Regarding
Application for Reconsideration

By an application dated October 7, 1996, a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the subject petition for trade adjustment assistance (TAA). The denial notice was signed on October 1, 1996 and published in the Federal Register on October 16, 1996 (61 FR 53937).

The initial investigation findings showed that the workers produced men's tailored clothing, suits, coats and sportcoats. The Department's denial was based on the fact that all of the production workers were separated from the subject firm more than one year prior to the date of the petition and that the "contributed importantly" test of the Group Eligibility Requirements of the Trade Act was not met. In a follow-up conversation the petitioner, a former company official, indicated that the petition was filed only by managers who were laid off due to the fact that the company was sold. Managers were laid off by the new company and none of the production workers at the new company were affected.

Based on company official information the investigation revealed that criterion (1,2&3) of Section 223 of the Trade Act has not been met.

Conclusion

After reconsideration, I affirm the original notice of negative determination of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act to workers and former workers of Oakloom Clothes, Incorporated, Baltimore, Maryland.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 4th day of November 1996.

Smith Corona Corporation, Cortland,
New York; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) as amended by the Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (Pub. L. 100-418), the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 10, 1996, applicable to all workers of Smith Corona Corporation engaged in employment related to the production of typewriters and word processors in Cortland, New York. The notice soon will be published in the Federal Register.

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by Smith Corona Corporation reveals that support staff workers (sales, services and administrative) have been separated from employment at various field offices of the subject firm. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include all of Smith Corona's support staff workers at various locations in the States of California, Connecticut, Georgia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Puerto Rico and Texas.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Smith Corona Corporation who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-32,691 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Smith Corona Corporation, Cortland, New York and various field offices in California, Connecticut, Georgia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Puerto Rico and Texas engaged in employment related to the production of typewriters and word processors including support staff workers who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 6, 1996, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed in Washington, DC, this 4th day of November 1996.

Snyder Oil Corporation Headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas, Operating Throughout the State of Texas and Farmington, NM; Amended
Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 2, 1996, applicable to all workers of Snyder Oil Corporation, headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas and operating throughout the State of Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 21, 1996 (61 FR 6660).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that worker separations will occur at Snyder Oil's operations in Farmington, New Mexico. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Snyder Oil Corporation adversely affected by imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include all workers at the subject firm's Farmington, New Mexico location.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,694 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers at Snyder Oil Corporation, headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas, operating throughout the State of Texas (TA-W-31,694), and Farmington, New Mexico (TA-W-31,694B), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 17, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 8th day of November 1996.

Proposed Collection of the ETA 5159, Claims and Payment Activities; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment and Training Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed revision and extension of the collection of the ETA 5159, Claims and Payment Activities. The proposed change is the addition of data which identifies workload connected with agent interstate initial claims as well as total agent interstate initial claims activity. A copy of the proposed information collection request (ICR) can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before January 21, 1997.

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

- minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The ETA 5159 report contains information on claims activities including initial claims, weeks claimed, weeks compensated, and the amount of benefit payments. These data are used in budgetary and administrative planning, program evaluation, and reports to Congress and the public. The change being proposed concerns initial claims filed by interstate claimants. The current figure being reported represents all such claims. In the past, all claims were filed with the agent State and those States were reimbursed for the work associated with those claims. Several States have begun using the telephone for interstate claimants to file
