United States' Response to Public Comments

I. Introduction

Pursuant to the requirements of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, (commonly referred to as the "Tunney Act"), 15 U.S.C. 16 (b)–(h), the United States hereby responds to public comments regarding the Final Judgment initially proposed as the basis for settling this proceeding in the public interest. Since the comments regarding the first proposed Final Judgment were submitted, the parties have agreed to a superseding, proposed Revised Final Judgment, filed on November 1, 1995, which reflects changes to a few provisions. After careful consideration of the comments on the formerly proposed Final Judgment, viewed in light of the proposed Revised Final Judgment, the United States concludes that the Revised Final Judgment will provide an effective and appropriate remedy for the antitrust violation alleged in the Complaint. Once the public comments and this response have been published in the Federal Register, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 16(d), the United States will request that the Court enter the Revised Final Judgment.

II. Procedural History

On December 15, 1994, the United States filed a Complaint alleging that Vision Service Plan ("VSP"), in all or parts of the many states in which it does business as a vision-care insurer, has entered into agreements with its panel doctors that unreasonably restrain competition by discouraging the doctors from discounting their fees for vision-care services, in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. 1. Simultaneously with the filing of the Complaint, the United States filed a proposed Final Judgment and a Stipulation signed by both it and the defendant, agreeing to the entry of the Final Judgment following compliance with the Tunney Act.

Pursuant to the Tunney Act, on December 23, 1994, VSP filed the required description of certain written and oral communications made on its behalf; the United States filed a Competitive Impact Statement ("CIS") on January 13, 1995. A summary of the terms of the proposed Final Judgment and the CIS and directions for the submission of written comments were published in the Washington Post for seven consecutive days, from January 22–28, 1995. The proposed Final Judgment and the CIS were published in the Federal Register on January 26, 1995. 60 FR 5210–17 (1995). The 60-day period for public comments on the then proposed Final Judgment began on January 27, 1995, and expired on March 27, 1995. Five comments were received.

The United States filed the five comments with the Court on May 12, 1995, and was preparing to file its response to them when VSP raised issues about the application of certain provisions of the then-proposed Final Judgment to its operations. On June 23, 1995, the United States advised the Court that the parties were considering whether those issues warranted any modification to the proposed Final Judgment. Reflecting the outcome of those negotiations are the parties' Superseding Stipulation, the proposed Revised Final Judgment, and the Revised CIS, filed on November 1, 1995. The latter two documents are styled as "Revised" because they reflect changes made to a few of the provisions of the proposed Final Judgment and to related portions of the CIS. The Government agreed to these revisions to remedy certain problems that VSP had experienced while operating under the terms of the originally proposed Final Judgment, which, pursuant to Stipulation, it had been doing since the proposed Final Judgment was filed.

In a letter accompanying the superseding filings, the United States informed the Court of its intent to provide public notice of the proposed Revised Final Judgment and the Revised CIS in accordance with the Tunney Act. Pursuant to the Act, under cover of a letter dated November 27, 1995, the defendant filed the required description of certain written and oral communications made on its behalf. A summary of the terms of the proposed Revised Final Judgment and the Revised CIS and directions for the submission of written comments were published in the Washington Post for seven consecutive days, from November 12–18, 1995. The proposed Revised Final Judgment and the Revised CIS were published in the Federal Register on November 13, 1995. 60 FR 57017–21 (1995). The 60-day period for public comments started on November 14, 1995, and expired on January 13, 1996. No comments on the proposed Revised Final Judgment were received.

III. Factual Background

VSP contracts with businesses, government agencies, health-care insurers, and other organizations to provide prepaid vision-care insurance to
