SUMMARY: This document contains a correction regarding the preamble to the interim rules governing access, portability and renewability requirements for group health plans and issuers of health insurance coverage offered in connection with a group health plan that were published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register. A sentence in the preamble to the interim rules was inadvertently dropped. This document adds this sentence.

Interim Rules for Health Insurance Portability for Group Health Plans and Individual Market Health Insurance Reform: Portability from Group to Individual Coverage; and Federal Rules for Access in the Individual Market; State Alternative Mechanisms to Federal Rules

AGENCY: Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), HHS.

ACTION: Interim rule; correction.

SUMMARY: Federal Register documents 97-8217 and 97-8275 in this issue include provisions that implement the health insurance portability, availability, and renewability provisions of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996.

Those documents contain a technical error in amendments because of differing effective dates. The rule with the earlier effective date establishes a new part in a subchapter established by the rule with the later date. This document corrects that error.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This correction is effective on April 8, 1997.
