

the preceding June. Section 826 of Public Law 104-193 amended Section 8(a) effective October 1, 1996 by removing the annual adjustment provision, thus freezing the minimum benefit at $10.

Standard Deduction

Section 5(e)(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. 2014(e)(1), provides that, in computing household income, households shall be allowed a standard deduction. Prior to August 22, 1996, Section 5(e) also required that the standard deduction be adjusted periodically. Section 809 of Public Law 104-193 amended Section 5(e)(1) to eliminate the periodic adjustment, freezing the standard deduction for each household in the 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Guam, and the Virgin Islands of the United States at the 1994 level, $134, $229, $189, $269, and $118, respectively.

Shelter Deduction

Prior to August 22, 1996, Section 5(e) of the Act also mandated increases in the shelter deduction limitation effective July 1, 1994, and October 1, 1995, and an elimination of the limitation effective January 1, 1997. Section 809 of Public Law 104-193 amended Section 5(e)(7) of the Act to provide that a household shall be entitled to an excess shelter expense deduction to the extent that the monthly amount expended by a household for shelter exceeds an amount equal to 50 percent of monthly household income after all other applicable deductions have been allowed. However, in the case of a household that does not contain an elderly or disabled individual, in the 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Guam and the Virgin Islands of the United States, the excess shelter deduction shall not exceed:

(i) for the period beginning on the date of enactment of the law and ending on December 31, 1996, $247, $429, $353, $300, and $182 per month, respectively;

(ii) for the period beginning on January 1, 1997, and ending September 30, 1998, $250, $434, $357, $304, and $184 per month, respectively;

(iii) for fiscal years 1999 and 2000, $275, $478, $393, $334, and $203 per month, respectively;

(iv) for fiscal year 2001 and each subsequent fiscal year, $300, $521, $429, $364, and $221 per month, respectively.

Homeless Shelter Allowance

Prior to August 22, 1996, Section 11(e)(3)(E) of the Act, 7 U.S.C.

2020(e)(3)(E), required the Secretary of Agriculture to prescribe rules requiring State agencies to develop standard estimates of the shelter expenses that could reasonably be expected to be incurred by households in which all members were homeless but which are not receiving free shelter throughout the month. In recognition of the difficulty State agencies could face in gathering the necessary information to compute standard shelter estimates for their States, the Department offered a standard estimate which could be used by all State agencies in lieu of their own estimates.

Sections 809 and 835 of Pub. L. 104-193 required revisions in the above described procedures. Section 809 amended Section 5(e)(5) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. 2014(e)(5), to allow State agencies the option to develop a standard, stand-alone homeless shelter allowance, which shall not exceed $143 per month and is not to be adjusted annually, for such expenses as may reasonably be expected to be incurred by households in which all members are homeless individuals but are not receiving free shelter throughout the month. State agencies that develop the allowance may use it in determining eligibility and allotments for the households. State agencies may make a household with extremely low shelter costs ineligible for the allowance. In essence, these rules match those in existence at 7 CFR 273.9(d)(5), with the exception of establishing a maximum allowance of $143. Therefore, no additional rulemaking was required prior to the implementation of this provision of Pub. L. 104-193. Section 835 of Pub. L. 104-193 repealed Section 11(e)(3)(E) of the Act.

Dated: April 4, 1997.

Submission For OMB Review; Comment Request

DOC has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for clearance the following proposal for collection of information under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

Agency: Bureau of the Census.

Title: National Employers Survey-III.

Form Number(s): Automated survey instrument.

Agency Approval Number: 0607-0787.

Type of Request: Reinstatement, with change, of a previously approved collection.

Burden: 3,250 hours.

Number of Respondents: 6,500.

Avg Hours Per Response: 30 minutes.

Needs and Uses: The Census Bureau plans to conduct the National Employers Survey (NES)-III. This survey is an extension and expansion of two previous NES surveys that were conducted in 1994 and 1996. As with the previous surveys, the NES-III will be conducted on a reimbursable basis for the National Center on the Employment Quality of the Workforce (EQW) administered through the Institute for Research in Higher Education of the University of Pennsylvania. The EQW is a group of professors, social scientists, and researchers from universities around the country studying the workplace in America. The EQW will incorporate the results of this survey into a larger five-year examination of the American workplace and will coordinate their efforts with similar studies and groups in other countries and with the World Bank.

The NES-III will provide unique information on employers' hiring and human resources practices and policies. In addition to adding to the base of information from the previous NES surveys, this survey will provide several new and important data products, such as hiring and workforce characteristics, expanded analysis and estimation of return on human and physical capital, new data on partnerships between business and schools, measurements of technological change, and an employee survey.

This project is designed to provide planners and policymakers, in government and the private sector, with sophisticated information on how our workforce compares and competes with other countries in South America and the Far East.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit.

Frequency: One time.

Respondent's Obligation: Voluntary.

Legal Authority: Title 13 USC, Sections 8 and 9.

OMB Desk Officer: Jerry Coffey, (202) 395-7314.
