

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE*Department of the Army*Environmental Assessment and finding of No Significant Impact for the Relocation of Elements of Information Systems Engineering Command-Continental United States (CONUS) From Fort Ritchie, Maryland to Fort Huachuca, Arizona

AGENCY: Department of the Army, DoD.

ACTION: Notice of availability.

SUMMARY: In accordance with Public Law 101-510, the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990, the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission recommended the relocation of a portion of the Information Systems Engineering Command-CONUS and associated base operations support personnel from Fort Ritchie, Maryland, to Fort Huachuca, Arizona.

An Environmental Assessment (EA) examined the proposed transfer of equipment and 198 positions (approximately 136 military and 62 civilians) to Fort Huachuca, Arizona, not later than the fourth quarter of Fiscal Year 1998. Plans for relocation include renovating existing space in Greely Hall. Less than half of the civilian personnel are anticipated to transfer with their positions.

The EA found that no significant adverse environmental impacts would occur as a result of the proposed action. Therefore, based on the analysis found in the EA, which was incorporated into the Finding of No Significant Impact (FNSI), it has been determined that implementation of the proposed action will not have significant individual or cumulative impacts on the quality of the natural or the human environment. Because no significant environmental impacts will result from implementation of the proposed action, an Environmental Impact Statement is not required and will not be prepared.

DATES: Public comments will be accepted on or before July 7, 1997, before the Army proceeds with the proposed action.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the EA/FNSI may be obtained by writing to, and any inquiries and comments concerning the same should be addressed to, the Commander, U.S. Army Garrison, ATTN, ATZS-EHB (Kent), Fort Huachuca, Arizona, 85613-6000 or by sending a telefax to 520-533-3043. Copies of the EA/FNSI will also be available for review at the public libraries in Sierra Vista, Bisbee, and Benson, AZ, or at the Public Affairs

Office (Building 21115), Fort Huachuca, AZ.

Dated: May 27, 1997.
