

Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 36 CFR sub-parts 216.6 and 251.57.

DATES: Written comments should be received by August 1, 1997.

ADDRESSES: Written comments pertaining to the proposed fee schedule should be sent to Rich Goossens, Regional Appraiser, Public Services Staff, USDA Forest Service, P.O. Box 21628, Juneau, AK 99801.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The USDA Forest Service is required to levy and collect fees from permits authorizing uses. Typically, fees are based upon fair market value (fair market rent) or other sound business practices, which more often than not involve an appraisal. An appraisal would take into consideration the rights that are granted as well as what others are paying in the private sector.

The National Forests in Alaska administer over 1,000 Special Use Permits (SUP) which may fall in as many as many as fifty categories. It would be preferable to conduct site specific appraisals on a frequent basis to ensure that the public is receiving fair rent for these uses. However, with the vastness of Alaska, the scattered nature of these uses and the prohibitive cost of conducting site specific appraisals, it is deemed nearly impossible to complete that task under the strict narrative appraisal guidelines. However, another option utilized elsewhere which has demonstrated efficiency, diminished cost, ease of application and incorporates the sound business premise, is the development of a fee schedule based upon a market survey.

A market survey was conducted, and concluded that fees should be mid-range to the low end of the fee spectrum, as seen in the private sector. In some instances the rents for these uses will increase and in other cases they will go down. By using a fee schedule a significant amount of time and effort by both the agency and the permittee will be saved in administration, and fees will be predictable for first-time permittees.

Rural Housing Service

Notice to Recipients of Form AD-622, "Notice of Preapplication Review Action," Under the Section 515 Rural Rental Housing Program

AGENCY: Rural Housing Service (RHS), USDA.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This Notice provides information to all applicants for the Section 515 Rural Rental Housing Program who have received Form AD-622, "Notice of Preapplication Review Action," inviting a formal loan application. The intent of this Notice is to inform such recipients that the Agency intends to keep their application as an active proposal until the Agency publishes final regulations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 17, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Cynthia L. Reese-Foxworth, Senior Loan Officer, Multi-Family Housing Processing Division, USDA, Stop 0781, Washington, DC, 20250, telephone (202) 720-1940 (this is not a toll free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Programs Affected

The Rural Rental Housing Program is listed in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance under Number 10.415, Rural Rental Housing Loans.

Discussion of Notice

The Rural Housing Service (RHS), formerly Rural Housing and Community Development Service (RHCD), a successor Agency to the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), amended its regulations for the Rural Rental Housing (RRH) Program to implement legislative reforms mandated by the Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1997, Public Law 104-180, enacted August 6, 1996. On May 7, 1997, the Agency published in the Federal Register (62 FR 25062) an interim final rule with request for comments entitled, "Rural Rental Housing (RRH) Assistance." Additionally, the Agency published a Notice in the Federal Register (62 FR 28982) of its intent to conduct a Public Hearing on June 11, 1997, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., in room 107-A of the Jamie L. Whitten Federal Building located at 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250.

The "Implementation Proposal" section of the preamble of the interim final rule stated that loan requests that have been issued an AD-622 inviting a formal application that are not located in a designated place in accordance with the requirements of the interim rule will be returned to the applicant. This Notice is to advise such applicants that this policy is revised. Loan requests that have been issued an AD-622 inviting a formal application for a complex that is not located in a designated place, in accordance with the interim rule, will be held until after the Final Rule on the reforms is published, estimated to be on or about November 1, 1997. The reason for not returning such loan requests at this time is because the Agency anticipates that the interim rule requirements on designating places may change based on the public comments and the scheduled hearing on June 11, 1997. The Agency does not desire to adversely affect such applicants by returning their loan requests. Until the Final Rule is published, Rural Development Offices will retain these loan requests. Retaining these loan requests should not be construed as an indication or guarantee of future funding. Rather, applicants may maintain the current status of their loan request at their own cost and risk; however, such applications will be subject to the provisions of the Final Rule. Such applicants must keep their applications current and may withdraw same at any time.

Dated: June 9, 1997.

Eileen Fitzgerald,

Acting Administrator, Rural Housing Service.

International Trade Administration

Intent To Revoke Antidumping Duty Orders and Findings and To Terminate Suspended Investigations

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of intent to revoke antidumping duty orders and findings and to terminate suspended investigations.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) is notifying the public of its intent to revoke the antidumping duty orders and findings and to terminate the suspended investigations listed below. Domestic interested parties who object to these revocations and terminations must submit their comments in writing no later than the last day of June 1997.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 17, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Michael Panfeld or the analyst listed under Antidumping Proceeding at: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street & Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC. 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Department may revoke an antidumping duty order or finding or terminate a suspended investigation if the Secretary of Commerce concludes that it is no longer of interest to interested parties. Accordingly, as required by § 353.25(d)(4) of the Department's regulations, we are notifying the public of our intent to revoke the following antidumping duty orders and findings and to terminate the suspended investigations for which the Department has not received a request to conduct an administrative review for the most recent four consecutive annual anniversary months:

If no interested party requests an administrative review in accordance with the Department's notice of opportunity to request administrative review, and no domestic interested party objects to the Department's intent to revoke or terminate pursuant to this notice, we shall conclude that the antidumping duty orders, findings, and suspended investigations are no longer of interest to interested parties and shall proceed with the revocation or termination.

Opportunity To Object

Domestic interested parties, as defined in § 353.2 (k)(3), (4), (5), and (6) of the Department's regulations, may object to the Department's intent to revoke these antidumping duty orders and findings or to terminate the suspended investigations by the last day of June 1997. Any submission to the Department must contain the name and case number of the proceeding and a statement that explains how the objecting party qualifies as a domestic interested party under § 353.2(k) (3), (4), (5), and (6) of the Department's regulations.

Seven copies of such objections should be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Room B-099, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230.
