Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

DOC has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for clearance the following proposal for collection of information under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).

AGENCY: Bureau of the Census.

Title: 1998 American Community Survey.

Form Number(s): ACS-1/1A, -10/10A, -12(L)/12A(L), -13(L)/13A(L), -14(L)/14A(L), -16(L)/16A(L), -20/20A, -30/30A.

Agency Approval Number: 0607-0810.

Type of Request: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Burden: 72,325 hours.

Number of Respondents: 258,000.

Avg Hours Per Response: 30 minutes.

Needs and Uses: The Census Bureau is developing a methodology known as "Continuous Measurement" which will produce socioeconomic data on a continual basis throughout the decade for small areas and small subpopulations. The American Community Survey (ACS), implemented in November 1995, is a continuing full-scale data collection effort designed to determine the feasibility of a continuous measurement system. The survey includes samples in specific sites as well as a national sample to test response rates and our ability to obtain telephone numbers for nonresponse households. The data collected in this survey will be within the general scope and nature of those inquiries covered in the decennial census every ten years.

In addition to the present 8 survey sites, we plan to add 2 new sites: Richland and Kershaw counties, South Carolina, including the city of Columbia; and Broward County, Florida.

The objectives of the 1998 test are to:

- Develop and test sampling and data collection procedures in a number of different data collection situations
- Develop and implement procedures to create a national list of group quarters, and integrate housing unit and group quarters data collection
- Produce estimates for consecutive years for the continuing survey sites
- Investigate the effects of conducting the ACS at the same time and place as a census

The ACS will be conducted at the same time and place (Richland & Kershaw Counties) as the 2000 Dress Rehearsal. This is being done for reasons stated above. We will ensure that no household receiving the ACS questionnaire will also get the long-form census questionnaire.

Affected Public: Individuals or households.

Frequency: Monthly.

Respondent's Obligation: Mandatory.

Legal Authority: Title 13 U.S.C., Section 182.

OMB Desk Officer: Jerry Coffey, (202) 395-7314.

Copies of the above information collection proposal can be obtained by calling or writing Linda Engelmeier, DOC Forms Clearance Officer, (202) 482-3272, Department of Commerce, room 5327, 14th and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230.

The Department of Commerce has decided to terminate the review for Minasligas.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 29, 1997.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 20, 1997, Minasligas, CBCC, and Ferbasa, manufacturers and exporters of merchandise subject to this order, requested that the Department conduct administrative reviews of the antidumping duty order on ferrosilicon from Brazil for the period March 1, 1996 through February 28, 1997.

On April 24, 1997, the Department published in the Federal Register (62 FR 19988) a notice of initiation of administrative review with respect to Minasligas, CBCC and Ferbasas for the period March 1, 1996 through February 28, 1997. On July 7, 1997, Minasligas requested that it be allowed to withdraw its request for a review and that the review be terminated.

The Department's regulations, at 19 CFR 353.22(a)(5)(1994), state that "the Secretary may permit a party that requests a review under paragraph (a) of this section to withdraw the request not later than 90 days after the date of publication of notice of initiation of the requested review. In light of the fact that Minasligas submitted a timely request for termination of this review, we have decided it is reasonable to allow Minasligas to withdraw its request for review. Accordingly, the Department is terminating this review for Minasligas.
