Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Request Under Blanket Authorization

August 8, 1997.

Take notice that on August 1, 1997, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia), 1700 MacCorkle Avenue, S.E., Charleston, West Virginia 25314, filed a prior notice request with the Commission in Docket No. CP97-679-000 pursuant to Section 157.205 of the Commission's Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (NGA) for authorization to construct and operate an additional delivery point for firm transportation service to Commonwealth Gas Services, Inc. (COS) in the City of Chesapeake, Virginia, under Columbia's blanket certificates issued in Docket Nos. CP83-76-000 and CP86-240-000 pursuant to Section 7 of the NGA, all as more fully set forth in the request that is open to the public for inspection.

Columbia proposes to construct and operate an additional delivery point to serve COS' commercial and residential customers in the Deep Creek area of Chesapeake. Columbia proposes to reassign up to 5,000 Dekatherms equivalents of natural gas per day (Dth/day) at the proposed Deep Creek delivery point and to reduce deliveries to COS by 5,000 Dth/day at the existing Portsmouth #1 delivery point. Columbia would deliver up to 1,825,000 Dth annually under its FERC Rate Schedule SST at the proposed Deep Creek delivery point and within certificated entitlements to COS. Columbia states that COS would reimburse Columbia approximately $187,200 for the construction cost of the proposed Deep Creek delivery point.

Any person or the Commission's staff may, within 45 days after the Commission has issued this notice, file pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's Procedural Rules (18 CFR 385.214) a motion to intervene or notice of intervention and pursuant to Section 157.205 of the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.205) a protest to the request. If no protest is filed within the allowed time, the proposed activity shall be deemed to be authorized effective the day after the time allowed for filing a protest. If a protest is filed and not withdrawn within 30 days after the time allowed for filing a protest, the instant request shall be treated as an application for authorization pursuant to Section 7 of the NGA.

Williams Natural Gas Company and Missouri Gas Energy, A Division of Southern Union Company; Notice of Petition for Declaratory Order

August 8, 1997.

Take notice that on August 1, 1997, pursuant to Rule 207 of the Rules and Practice and Procedure, Missouri Gas Energy, A Division of Southern Union Company (MGE) and Williams Natural Gas Company (Williams) filed a request for a Declaratory Order on the Right of First Refusal Mechanism.

MGE and Williams (the Parties) seek a declaratory order to resolve issues in controversy related to the right of first refusal (ROFR) mechanism bidding process. The Parties request a determination by the Commission that the current capacity holder, in order to retain such capacity, must either: (i) Submit a bid identical, in terms of amount and type of service, to the capacity that is posted; or (ii) compete with third parties pursuant to a bidding structure that is based on the overall economic value of each particular bid received. The parties respectfully request that the Commission make a determination as to the proper balance between these competing interests.

The parties states that they have served the foregoing document upon each person designated on the official service list compiled by the Secretary of the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed on or before September 2, 1997. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
