BJ Services Company, U.S.A., Including Former Employees of Western Company of North America, A/K/A Western Oceanic Services, Inc., A/K/A Nowasco Well Services Inc., Headquartered in Houston, Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 13, 1995, applicable to workers of BJ Services Company, U.S.A., headquartered in Houston, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 27, 1995 (60 FR 55064). The certification was amended on January 22, 1996 to include workers whose wages were reported under the predecessor tax accounts of Western Company of North America and Western Oceanic Services, Inc. The notice of amendment was published in the Federal Register on February 9, 1996 (61 FR 5034).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of crude oil and natural gas. Findings on review show that some of the workers have had their wages reported to the separate Unemployment Insurance tax account for Nowsco Well Services Inc. The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of BJ Services Company, U.S.A. who were affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the worker certification to reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,327 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of BJ Services Company, U.S.A., including former employees of Western Company of North America, also known as Western Oceanic Services, Inc., also known as Nowsco Well Services Inc., headquartered in Houston, Texas, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 3, 1994 through October 13, 1997, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 26th day of August 1997.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Craddock-Terry, Incorporated (Farmville Plant) Farmville, Virginia, (Gretna Plant) Gretna, Virginia, and Lynchburg Headquarters, Lynchburg, Virginia; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 24, 1997, applicable to all workers of Craddock-Terry, Incorporated, Farmville Plant, located in Farmville, Virginia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 13, 1997 (62 FR 6804).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information received by the company shows that worker separations occurred at the Gretna Plant, Gretna, Virginia facility when it closed August 15, 1997. The company also reported that worker separations will occur in September 1997 at the Lynchburg Headquarters, Lynchburg, Virginia location. The Lynchburg Headquarters provides support function services to the subject firm's manufacturing plants located throughout Virginia. The workers are engaged in the production of men's and women's shoes.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Craddock-Terry, Incorporated who were adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers of Craddock-Terry, Incorporated, Gretna Plant, Gretna, Virginia and the Lynchburg Headquarters, Lynchburg, Virginia.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-32,850 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Craddock-Terry, Incorporated, Farmville Plant, Farmville, Virginia (TA-W-32,850), Gretna Plant, Gretna, Virginia (TA-W-32,850A) and the Lynchburg Headquarters, Lynchburg, Virginia (TA-W-32,850B) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 16, 1995 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington D.C. this 29th day of August, 1997.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Acting Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.
