NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 50-269, 50-270, and 50-287]

Duke Energy Corporation; Notice of Consideration of Issuance of Amendments to Facility Operating Licenses and Opportunity for a Hearing

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) is considering issuance of amendments to Facility Operating License Nos. DPR-38, DPR-47, and DPR-55, issued to Duke Energy Corporation (the licensee), for operation of the Oconee Nuclear Station, Units 1, 2, and 3, located in Seneca, South Carolina.

The proposed amendments would replace the current Technical Specifications (TS) with a set of TS based on NUREG-1430, "Standard Technical Specifications—Babcock and Wilcox Plants," Revision 1, dated April 1995. The adoption of NUREG-1430 is part of an initiative to standardize and improve the TS for Babcock and Wilcox nuclear power plants.

The changes in the current TS can be grouped into five categories: administrative changes, more restrictive technical changes, less restrictive technical changes, relocation of details to other licensee controlled documents, and relocation of specifications to other licensee controlled documents. Administrative changes to the current TS are changes that result in no increase or decrease in restrictions or flexibility. These changes are intended to make the TS easier to use. More restrictive technical changes are either more conservative than the corresponding requirements in the current TS, or are additional restrictions that are not contained in the current TS. Less restrictive technical changes reduce either the scope or magnitude of requirements or add flexibility and are usually made as a result of operating experience. In most cases, these relaxations to the TS have been previously granted by the NRC to other plants. Relocation of details involves removal from the current TS and relocation to other licensee controlled documents. Typically, these details are of system design or function, or procedural details on surveillances. And finally, relocation of specifications involves requirements that are in the current TS but do not meet the criteria set forth in the Commission's Policy Statement on Technical Specification Improvement. Once these items have been relocated, the licensee generally would be able to revise them under the provisions of 10 CFR 50.59 without a license amendment.

Before issuance of the proposed license amendments, the Commission will have made findings required by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act) and the Commission's regulations.

By January 5, 1998, the licensee may file a request for a hearing with respect to issuance of the amendments to the subject facility operating licenses and any person whose interest may be affected by this proceeding and who wishes to participate as a party in the proceeding must file a written request for a hearing and a petition for leave to intervene. Requests for a hearing and a petition for leave to intervene shall be filed in accordance with the Commission's "Rules of Practice for Domestic Licensing Proceedings" in 10 CFR part 2. Interested persons should consult a current copy of 10 CFR 2.714 which is available at the Commission's Public Document Room, the Gelman Building, 2120 L Street, NW., Washington, DC, and at the local public document room located at the Oconee County Library, 501 West South Broad Street, Walhalla, South Carolina. If a request for a hearing or petition for leave to intervene is filed by the above date, the Commission or an Atomic Safety and Licensing Board, designated by the Commission or by the Chairman of the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board Panel, will rule on the request and/or petition; and the Secretary or the designated Atomic Safety and Licensing Board will issue a notice of hearing or an appropriate order.

As required by 10 CFR 2.714, a petition for leave to intervene shall set forth with particularity the interest of the petitioner in the proceeding, and how that interest may be affected by the results of the proceeding. The petition should specifically explain the reasons why intervention should be permitted with particular reference to the following factors: (1) The nature of the petitioner's right under the Act to be made a party to the proceeding; (2) the nature and extent of the petitioner's property, financial, or other interest in the proceeding; and (3) the possible effect of any order which may be entered in the proceeding on the petitioner's interest. The petition should also identify the specific aspect(s) of the subject matter of the proceeding as to which petitioner wishes to intervene. Any person who has filed a petition for leave to intervene or who has been admitted as a party may amend the petition without requesting leave of the Board up to 15 days prior to the first prehearing conference scheduled in the
