SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

20 CFR Part 416

[Regulations No. 16]

RIN 0960-AE87

Supplemental Security Income for the Aged, Blind, and Disabled; Charging Administration Fees for Making State Supplementary Payments

AGENCY: Social Security Administration (SSA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: We are revising our rules to reflect statutory changes that require the Social Security Administration (SSA) to increase the administration fees it charges States for making supplementary payments on behalf of States.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This rule is effective June 22, 1998.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gareth Dence, Social Insurance Specialist, Division of Payment Policy, Office of Program Benefits Policy, Social Security Administration, 6401 Security Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21235, (410) 965-9872 for information about this rule. For information on eligibility or claiming benefits, call our national toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On October 1, 1993, pursuant to amendments made to the Social Security Act (the Act) and to Pub. L. No. 93-66 by section 13731 of Pub. L. No. 103-66, SSA began charging States that had elected Federal administration of optional and/or mandatory State supplementary payments a fee for administering those payments. This regulation reflects section 5102 of Pub. L. No. 105-33 (the Balanced Budget Act of 1997), which increase the administration fee SSA charges States for making supplementary payments on their behalf.

Present Policy

The administration fee is charged monthly and is derived by multiplying the number of State supplementary payments made by SSA on behalf of a State for a month by the applicable dollar rate for the fiscal year (FY), as prescribed in section 13731 of Pub. L. No. 103-66. The dollar rates are as follows: for FY 1994, $1.67; for FY 1995, $3.33; for FY 1996, $5.00. For FY 1997 and each succeeding FY, the statutory rate reflected in section 13731 of Pub. L. No. 103-66 is $5.00 or such different rate as determined by SSA to be appropriate for any particular State. In making this determination, SSA may take into account the complexity of administering the State's supplementary payment program.

Revised Policy

We are amending the regulation at § 416.2010(b) to reflect section 5102 of Pub. L. No. 105-33, that increases the fees SSA is required to charge for administering State supplementary payments.

Regulatory Procedures

Executive Order 12866

We have consulted with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and determined that this rule does not meet the criteria for a significant regulatory action under Executive Order 12866. Thus, it was not subject to OMB review.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

We certify that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Therefore, a regulatory flexibility analysis as provided in the Regulatory Flexibility Act, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 601 et seq. is not required.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule imposes no reporting/recordkeeping requirements subject to OMB clearance.

(Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Program No. 96.006, Supplemental Security Income)

Regulatory Procedures

Pursuant to section 702(a)(5) of the Act, SSA follows the procedures specified in the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. 553, in the development of its regulations. The APA provides exceptions to its Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) procedures when an agency finds that there is good cause for dispensing with such procedures on the basis that they are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest. In the case of this final rule we have determined that, under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), good cause exists for dispensing with the NPRM procedures. This rule contains no discretionary policy; the changes made by this final rule merely conform our regulation to the statutory changes made by Pub. L. No. 105-33. The statute requiring the increase in State supplementation administration fees was effective on August 5, 1997. Therefore, we find that opportunity for prior comment is unnecessary. In addition, we find good cause for dispensing with the 30-day delay in the effective date of a substantive rule provided for by 5 U.S.C. 553(d). We have determined that a delay in the effective date of this rule is unnecessary because the rule contains no discretionary policy but merely conforms our regulations to a statutory provision that is already in effect.

[TD ATF-399; Re: Notice No. 853]

RIN 1512-AA07

Diablo Grande Viticultural Area (97-104)

AGENCY: Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) Treasury.

ACTION: Treasury decision, final rule.

SUMMARY: This Treasury decision establishes a viticultural area located in the western foothills of Stanislaus County, California, to be known as "Diablo Grande" under 27 CFR part 9. The viticultural area occupies over 45 square miles, or approximately 30,000 acres. This viticultural area is the result of a petition submitted by Dr. Vincent E. Petrucci, Sc.D., on behalf of the Diablo Grande Limited Partnership, the principal property owner within the viticultural area and developers of the Diablo Grande Resort Community.

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 21, 1998.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David W. Brokaw, Regulations Division, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, 650 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20226, (202) 927-8199.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 23, 1978, ATF published Treasury Decision ATF-53 (43 FR 37672, 54624) revising regulations in 27

CFR part 4. These regulations allow the establishment of definitive viticultural areas. The regulations allow the name of an approved viticultural area to be used as an appellation of origin on wine labels and in wine advertisements. On October 2, 1979, ATF published Treasury Decision ATF-60 (44 FR 56692) which added a new part 9 to 27 CFR, for the listing of approved American viticultural areas, the names of which may be used as appellations of origin.

Section 4.25a(e)(1), title 27, CFR, defines an American viticultural area as a delimited grape-growing region distinguishable by geographical features, the boundaries of which have been delineated in subpart C of part 9.

Section 4.25a(e)(2) outlines the procedure for proposing an American viticultural area. Any interested person may petition ATF to establish a grape-growing region as a viticultural area. The petition should include:

(a) Evidence that the name of the proposed viticultural area is locally and/or nationally known as referring to the area specified in the petition;

(b) Historical or current evidence that the boundaries of the viticultural area are as specified in the petition;

(c) Evidence relating to the geographical characteristics (climate, soil, elevation, physical features, etc.) which distinguish the viticultural features of the proposed area from surrounding areas;

(d) A description of the specific boundaries of the viticultural area, based on features which can be found on United States Geological Survey (U.S.G.S.) maps of the largest applicable scale; and

(e) A copy (or copies) of the appropriate U.S.G.S. map(s) with the boundaries prominently marked.

Petition

Dr. Vincent E. Petrucci, Sc.D., petitioned ATF on behalf of the Diablo Grande Limited Partnership, for the establishment of a new viticultural area located in the western foothills of Stanislaus County, California, to be known as "Diablo Grande." The Diablo Grande Limited Partnership is the principal property owner within the proposed viticultural area and the developer of the Diablo Grande Resort Community. The viticultural area occupies over 45 square miles, or approximately 30,000 acres. Currently there are 35 acres of grapes planted with an additional 17 acres planned for 1997. The petitioner claims that the area can accommodate an additional 2700 acres of future grape plantings.

Comments

A Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, Notice No. 853 (62 FR 34027) was published in the Federal Register on June 24, 1997, requesting comments from all interested persons concerning the proposed "Diablo Grande" viticultural area. No comments were received in response to this notice.

Evidence That the Name of the Area Is Locally or Nationally Known

"Diablo Grande," is the name of the destination resort and residential community that occupies the viticultural area. The petitioner stated that this name was given to the area because of its proximity to Mount Diablo, the highest peak of the Pacific Coast mountain range. Mount Diablo is located 38-40 miles due north of the proposed area. The petitioner emphasized the fact that the proposed area lies in the Diablo Mountain Range, which extends from Mount Diablo State Park in Contra Costa County to the south of and beyond the proposed "Diablo Grande" viticultural area located in Stanislaus County. There is evidence that the name, "Diablo Grande," has become associated with the area by both the residents of California, and perhaps the nation, as a result of the development of the destination resort and residential community. The resort community has been in existence since the early 1990s. As evidence that the area is known as "Diablo Grande," the petitioner submitted copies of 21 newspaper articles that discuss the development of the resort. With the exception of the Golf Course Report, Alexandria, Virginia, all of the articles are from local California newspapers.

There is also evidence that the area occupied by the resort was historically known as the "Oak Flats Valley." A working ranch, known as the Oak Flats Valley Ranch once occupied this land. Many of the newspaper articles submitted by the petitioner refer to the area as the "Oak Flats Valley Ranch" or the "Oak Flats Valley." No evidence was provided that the area was tied to Mount Diablo prior to the development of the resort. Accordingly, ATF solicited comments in Notice No. 853 on whether the use of the name "Diablo Grande" was proper for this area. No comments were received on this issue. Consequently, based on the evidence submitted by the petitioner, ATF believes the name "Diablo Grande" is now associated with the area.
