

whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

If you have additional comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions, or additional information, please contact Greg Steadman, Statistician, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 810 7th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20531, or via facsimile (202) 307-5846.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of information collection: New collection.

(2) The title of the form/collection: 1998 National Study of DNA Laboratories.

(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: Form number CLAB-1. Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract:

Primary: State, Local or Tribal Government

Other: None.

This information collection is a census of public crime laboratories that perform DNA analysis. The information will provide statistics on laboratories' capacity to analyze DNA evidence, the number and sources of DNA evidence received per year, the number, types, and costs of analyses completed. It will also identify the capacities of states to participate in a national DNA database.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond/reply: 160 respondents each taking an average 0.75 hours to respond.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 120 annual burden hours.

Authority

This action is authorized under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, sections 201-03, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 3721-23 (1994).

Background

The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) is requesting proposals to assess/evaluate its overall communications and dissemination processes and products, especially as they relate to its primary mission to develop knowledge and technology that will improve and strengthen the criminal justice system. Areas of assessment should include, but not be limited to: (1) Topics/content—are they timely and relevant?; (2) formats—are they user-friendly?; (3) which of the current formats are most preferred?; (4) audience; and (5) is NIJ reaching the right people/organizations with its dissemination efforts?

Proposals will be evaluated on the basis of: conceptual approach, methodological strategy, proposed timeline for the project, and organizational experience. NIJ anticipates funding one award under this solicitation for up to $250,000.

Interested organizations should call the National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS) at 1-800-851-3420 to obtain a copy of "Communicating Research Findings: Assessing the Communication Strategies and Products of the National Institute of Justice (refer to document no. SL000299). For World Wide Web access, connect either to either NIJ at <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/nij/funding.htm>, or the NCJRS Justice Information Center at <http://www.ncjrs.org/fedgrant.htm#nij>.

Authority

This action is authorized under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets

Act of 1968, sections 201-03, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 3721-23 (1994).

Background

The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) is calling for interested applicants to submit their prototype electromagnetic (EM) devices for submission to NIJ's vehicle stopping Phase III testing—engineering field testing. Under this solicitation NIJ will provide grant funds for the following purposes:

- Performance of reasonable development work to advance an applicant's EM device to the status of a field-testable prototype;
- Support for applicant technical personnel to attend field testing; and
- Shipment of the prototype device and associated ancillary support equipment to and from the Phase III test site.

Applicants must ensure that the EM device they propose for consideration satisfies NIJ's Phase III testing criteria for device type applicability, deployment capability, and physical and functional maturity.

Interested organizations should call the National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS) at 1-800-851-3420 to obtain a copy of "Evaluation of Vehicle Stopping Electromagnetic Prototype Devices: Phase III—Engineering Field Test" (refer to document no. #### Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Acting Director of the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to Section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 28, 1998.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 28, 1998.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 3rd day of August, 1998.
