SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Advisory Committee on Student Financial Assistance is established under Section 491 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 as amended by Pub. L. 100-50 (20 U.S.C. 1098). The Advisory Committee is established to provide advice and counsel to the Congress and the Secretary of Education on student financial aid matters, including providing technical expertise with regard to systems of need analysis and application forms, making recommendations that will result in the maintenance of access to postsecondary education for low- and middle-income students, conducting a study of institutional lending in the Stafford Student Loan Program, and assisting with activities related to reauthorization of the Higher Education Act of 1965. As a result of the passage of the Higher Education Amendments of 1992, the Congress directed the Advisory Committee to assist with a series of special assessments and conduct an in-depth study of student loan simplification. The Advisory Committee fulfills its charge by conducting objective, nonpartisan, and independent analyses of important student aid issues. Also, with passage of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (OBRA) of 1993, Congress assigned the Advisory Committee the major task of evaluating the Ford Federal Direct Loan Program (FDLP) and the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP). The Committee was directed to report to the Secretary and Congress on not less than an annual basis on the operation of both programs and submit a final report by January 1, 1997. The Committee submitted to Congress its final recommendations on the advisability of fully implementing the FDLP on December 11, 1996. In addition, Congress invited the Committee to submit recommendations pertaining to the 1998 reauthorization of the Higher Education Act. Specifically, Congress asked the Committee to identify proposals to improve access through delivery and identify and analyze the impact of proposals being developed by the Department of Education (ED) and the higher education community, among others. The Committee delivered its reauthorization recommendations to Congress on May 1, 1997. The Committee will continue to inform members and the higher education community about the current status of congressional and other legislative proposals and make recommendations to Congress and the Secretary of Education regarding the impact of these proposals on student aid policy.

The proposed agenda includes: (a) Discussion sessions on reauthorization of the Higher Education Act and its impact on students, institutions, ED, and all other participants in the student aid programs; and (b) discussion sessions addressing the Committee's agenda for fiscal year 1999 and other Committee business (e.g., election of officers, etc.). The ensuing discussions will relate to internal personnel rules and practices of an agency and will disclose information of a personal nature where disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy if conducted in open session. Such matters are protected by exemptions (2) and (6) Section 552(b)(c) of Title 5 U.S.C.
