GL&V/Black Clawson-Kennedy
Watertown, NY; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By letter of August 12, 1998 the petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance, applicable to petition number TA-W-34,563. The denial notice was signed on July 17, 1998 and published in the Federal Register on August 7, 1998 (63 FR 42434).

The petitioner alleges that worker separations from the subject firm were caused by imports and provided additional information which warrants reconsideration of the case.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC this 25th day of August 1998.

Hasbro Manufacturing Services, El Paso, TX; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for
Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 16, 1998, applicable to all workers of Hasbro Manufacturing Services located in El Paso, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 6, 1998 (63 FR 25082).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce toys. New findings show that the workers at the subject firm were covered under a certification, TA-W-31,969, that did not expire until midnight April 17, 1998. To avoid a one day overlap in coverage for the El Paso worker group, the Department is amending the impact date for TA-W-34,286 from April 17, 1998 to April 18, 1998.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,286 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers Hasbro Manufacturing Services, El Paso, Texas, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 18, 1998 through April 16, 2000, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 14th day of August 1998.

Oxford Industries, Incorporated;
Oxford Women's Catalog and Special Markets Division, Alma, Georgia and
Oxford of Camden, Camden, South
Carolina; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility to Apply for
Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 21, 1997, applicable to workers of Oxford Women's Catalog and Special Markets Division of Oxford Industries, Incorporated located in Alma, Georgia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on January 22, 1998 (63 FR 3352).

At the request of the company, the Department revised the certification for workers of the subject firm. The company reports that workers producing ladies' sportswear and dresses will be separated from employment at Oxford Industries, Incorporated, Oxford of Camden, Camden, South Carolina when the plant closes in September 1998.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Oxford Industries, Incorporated adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Oxford of Camden, Camden, South Carolina.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,061 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Oxford Industries, Incorporated, Oxford Women's Catalog and Special Markets Division, Alma, Georgia (TA-W-34,061) and Oxford of Camden, Camden, South Carolina (TA-W-34,061C) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 19, 1996 through December 21, 1999, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 19th day of August 1998.

Polaroid Corporation, W-3 Plant,
Waltham, Massachusetts; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on June 22, 1998, applicable to workers of Polaroid Corporation located in Waltham, Massachusetts. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 31, 1998 (63 FR 40935).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the State reveals that Polaroid has multiple plants in Waltham, Massachusetts. The petitioning workers were employed at the W-3 plant producing instant photographic film consisting of sheets and filmpacks. Based on this information and that provided by the subject firm officials, the Department is amending the certification to limit coverage to those workers at Polaroid Corporation, Waltham, Massachusetts, W-3 Plant producing instant photographic film.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,439 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Polaroid Corporation, W-3 Plant, Waltham, Massachusetts engaged in employment related to the production of instant photographic film, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 24, 1997 through June 22, 2000, are eligible to apply for worker adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Trico Products Corporation; Vancebro, NC and Trico Products Division Headquarters Buffalo, NY; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 13, 1997, applicable to workers of Trico Products Corporation in Vanceboro, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 6, 1998 (63 FR 25082).

At the request of the Company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the Company shows that worker separations have occurred at the Division Headquarters in Buffalo, New York. The Buffalo, New York location is the corporate headquarters and administrative offices, where workers provide administrative and support service functions related to the production of windshield wipers, including blades, refills, and parts for the North American production facilities of Trico Products Corporation, including Vanceboro, North Carolina. The Division Headquarters workers have been covered under a NAFTA petition (NAFTA 2210). Based on this new information, the Department is amending the certification to cover the subject firms' workers at the Division Headquarters in Buffalo, New York.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Trico Products Corporation affected by increased imports of windshield wipers, including blades, refills, and parts.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,281 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Trico Products Corporation, Vanceboro, North Carolina (TA-W-34,281) and Trico Products Division Headquarters in Buffalo New York (TA-W-34,281A) who were engaged in employment related to the production of wiper blades who become totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 11, 1997 through April 13, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.
