ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

[FRL-6165-6]

Announcement Regarding Implementation of the Section 112(g) Program in the State of Connecticut and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Effective on June 29, 1998, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) plans to implement section 112(g) of the Clean Air Act as amended in 1990 through provisions promulgated in 40 CFR part 63, subpart B. Subpart B requires State permitting authorities with an approved title V program to make case-by-case maximum achievable control technology (MACT) determinations for constructed or reconstructed major sources in source categories for which national emission standards for hazardous air pollutants (NESHAPs) have not yet been promulgated.

Subpart B requires State or local permitting agencies to implement the section 112(g) program promulgated in subpart B, or the State or local permitting authorities may request that EPA implement the program for that State or local agency for a period of no more than one year. With this document, EPA Region I announces that it will implement the section 112(g) program for the State of Connecticut and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts until June 29, 1999, or the effective date of the State section 112(g) program, whichever is earlier. In Connecticut, where Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection (CT DEP) has the authority to issue a pre-construction permit to a constructed or reconstructed source with potential to emit greater than 15 tons per year of any individual hazardous air pollutant (HAP), CT DEP will issue the Notice of MACT approval to those subject sources after EPA concurs in writing on the MACT determination. For all other sources in Connecticut subject to section 112(g), EPA Region I will issue the Notice of MACT approval.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For more information about the implementation of the section 112(g) programs by Region I, please contact Susan Lancey, telephone (617) 565-3587 or E-mail lancey.susan@epamail.epa.gov, Office of Ecosystem Protection, JFK Federal Building (CAP), Boston, MA 02203.
