SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Corporation is a federal government corporation that encourages

Americans of all ages and backgrounds to engage in community-based service to meet the nation's educational, public safety, environmental and other human needs. In doing so, the Corporation fosters civic responsibility, strengthens the ties that bind us together as a people, and provides educational opportunity for those who make a substantial commitment to service. Each year, the Corporation supports approximately 40,000 AmeriCorps members who perform substantial service in communities across the country.

Since its inception in 1993, the Corporation has devoted a substantial part of its activities to helping to meet the needs of children and youth. Last year at the Presidents' Summit on America's Future in Philadelphia, President Clinton, former Presidents Bush, Carter, and Ford, Mrs. Nancy Reagan, and General Colin Powell, with the endorsement of many governors, mayors, and leaders of the independent sector, declared: "Our obligation, direct and unmistakable, is to assure that all young Americans have:

- Caring adults in their lives, as parents, mentors, tutors, coaches;
- Safe places with structured activities in which to learn and grow;
- A healthy start and healthy future;
- An effective education that equips them with marketable skills; and
- An opportunity to give back to their communities through their own service.

These five goals are now the five fundamental resources sought by America's Promise—The Alliance for Youth, the organization pursuing the goals of the Presidents' Summit. The Corporation seeks to promote the use of AmeriCorps members, and the principles of service-learning, in achieving goals four and five.

The National and Community Service Act of 1990, as amended, specifically encourages the involvement of teachers, and those studying to become teachers, in AmeriCorps national service. Through this Notice, the Corporation seeks to strengthen that involvement. Under subtitle H, the Corporation may support innovative and model activities, including those undertaken by programs funded under AmeriCorps*State/National and Learn and Serve America and including those that promote service-learning. 42 U.S.C. 12653.

Through this Notice, the Corporation announces its intention to provide assistance under subtitle H to organizations currently enrolling AmeriCorps members in programs supported under AmeriCorps*State/National and Learn and Serve America, with funds earmarked for planning and technical assistance activities to develop more effective connections between AmeriCorps and teachers, teacher training, and teacher education. The activities supported under this Notice must incorporate service-learning principles, as defined below.

This Notice builds upon the Corporation's literacy activities under the America Reads Challenge, and is intended to enable national service to help meet teacher shortages in certain areas of the country and in certain subjects.

Eligible Applicants

Eligible applicants are institutions of higher education and nonprofit organizations that have an existing grant or agreement with the Corporation to enroll AmeriCorps members in a program that includes teachers, teacher training, or teacher education. Given the limited scope of eligible applicants, the Corporation expects fewer than ten applications.

Purpose of Assistance

This assistance will support planning and technical assistance activities to develop more effective connections between AmeriCorps and teachers, teacher training, and teacher education, with the goal of increasing the number of AmeriCorps members involved in teaching in areas of need as defined by local communities; teacher education; and teacher training. The Corporation intends that the activities supported under this Notice will result in an increase in requests to expand and/or modify existing national service programs to include new teaching-related initiatives and in applications for Corporation assistance from teaching-related programs. Assistance may not be used to support an activity that is both conducted by a national service program and is already supported by Corporation assistance.
