Southern California Gas Company; Notice of Report of Refunds

December 16, 1998.

Take notice that on November 24, 1998, Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas) tendered for filing its Report of Refunds at Docket No. RP93-197-003.

SoCalGas states that the report of refunds reflects the refunds to interstate shippers (who are not also end-use customers of SoCalGas) of all amounts collected through the Wheeler Ridge interconnection charge for the July 13, 1993 through December 31, 1993 period plus interest calculated pursuant to the Commission's regulations.

SoCalGas states that the refunds were distributed on November 24, 1998.

SoCalGas states that the refunds totaled $1,889,994.85 inclusive of interest.

SoCalGas states that copies of the filing were served upon all of interstate shippers eligible for refund and the California Public Utilities Commission. SoCalGas further states that each customer received its pertinent detail when refunds were distributed.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before December 22, 1998. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

[Docket No. CP99-107-000]

Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company; Notice of Application to Abandon

December 16, 1998.

Take notice that on December 8, 1998, Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company (Tennessee), P.O. Box 2511, Houston, Texas 77252-2511 filed under Section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act for authority to abandon, temporary facilities.

Specifically, Tennessee seeks authority to remove and sell as scrap 200-feet of 2-inch line installed to assist producers during rehabilitation of Tennessee's Line 100-1 in Liberty County, Texas.

Any person desiring to be heard or make any protest with reference to said application should on or before January 6, 1999, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20406, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the Protesters parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rule's.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required, or if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that permission and approval of the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Tennessee to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Williams Gas Pipelines Central, Inc.; Notice of Compliance Filing

December 16, 1998.

Take notice that on December 11, 1998, Williams Gas Pipelines Central, Inc. (Williams), tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets, with the proposed effective date of January 1, 1999:

Second Revised Sheet No. 38

First Revised Sheet No. 39

Williams states that this filing is being made pursuant to Section 375.307(e)(4) of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. On December 1, 1998, Williams made a filing to recover through an alternate mechanism any GSR costs not recovered through the mechanism set forth in Article 14.2 of its tariff. By Commission letter order issued December 10, 1998, Williams was directed to correct the pagination of Sheet Nos. 38 and 39. The instant filing is being made to comply with the order.

Williams states that a copy of its filing was served on all of Williams' jurisdictional customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to protect this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

[Docket No. CP99-102-000]

Wyoming Interstate Company, Ltd.; Notice of Application

December 16, 1998.

Take notice that on December 3, 1998, Wyoming Interstate Company, Ltd. (WIC), Post Office Box 1087, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80944, filed in Docket No. CP99-102-000, an application pursuant to Section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act (NGA) and Part 157 of the Commission's Regulations, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing WIC to construct and operate the proposed Medicine Bow Lateral, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Specifically, WIC states that the Medicine Bow Lateral will consist of 143 miles of 24-inch diameter pipeline extending from two proposed interconnects with non-jurisdictional facilities in Converse County, Wyoming to an interconnect with WIC's existing mainline approximately seven and one half miles west of the existing Cheyenne Compressor Station in Weld County, Colorado. In addition, WIC proposes to construct the 7,200 horsepower Medicine Bow Compressor Station in the vicinity of the two receipt points.

WIC states that the Medicine Bow Lateral will allow for the firm transportation of up to 260,000 dth per day of new gas supplies from the Powder River Basin to WIC's mainline. WIC estimates that the proposed facilities will cost $80,429,200.

Any person desiring to be heard or making any protest with reference to said application should on or before January 6, 1999 file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that protestors provide copies of their protests to the party or person to whom the protests are directed. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

A person obtaining intervenor status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents issued by the Commission, filed by the applicant, or filed by all other intervenors. An intervenor can file for rehearing of any Commission order and can petition for court review of any such order. However, an intervenor must serve copies of comments or any other filing it makes with the Commission to every other intervenor in the proceeding, as well as filing an original and 14 copies with the Commission.

A person does not have to intervene, however, in order to have comments considered. A person, instead, may submit two copies of such comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of environmental documents, and will be able to participate in meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission, and will not have the right to seek rehearing or appeal the Commission's final order to a Federal court.

The Commission will consider all comments and concerns equally, whether filed by commenters or those requesting intervenor status.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the NGA and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for WIC to appear or be represented at the hearing.
