SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Correction

On October 21, 1997 (62 FR 54732), HUD published a notice that provides revised designations of "Difficult Development Areas" for purposes of the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and describes the methodology used by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. The notice advised that the new Difficult Development Areas are based on FY 1997 Fair Market Rents, FY 1997 income limits and 1990 census population counts. The notice also advised that the corrected designations of "Qualified Census Tracts" under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code published May 1, 1995 (60 FR 21246) remain in effect.

The purpose of this notice is to correct an error that appeared in the table accompanying the October 21, 1997 publication. The table listing 1998 Internal Revenue Code Section 423(d)(5)(C) Nonmetropolitan Difficult Development Areas inadvertently named Bradford, Calhoun, and Citrus counties as 1998 Nonmetropolitan Difficult Development Areas in the State of Delaware. Bradford, Calhoun, and Citrus counties should have been listed as 1998 Nonmetropolitan Difficult Development Areas in the State of Florida. Through this notice, the public is therefore advised of the error in the October 21, 1997 publication and provided with the correct information.

Dated: February 17, 1998.

Camille E. Acevedo,

Assistant General Counsel for Regulations.

The toll-free telephone number for the Telecommunications Device for the Deaf is (800) 877-8339.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (Privacy Act) (5 U.S.C. 552a), is a Federal law that requires Federal agencies to limit the manner in which they collect, use, and disclose information about individuals who are citizens of the United States or resident aliens. The Privacy Act provides that, upon request, an individual has the right to access any record maintained on her/him in an agency's system of records.

The Privacy Act prohibits agencies from disclosing any record that is contained in a system of records to any person or another agency (third parties), except pursuant to a written request by or the prior written consent of the individual to whom the records pertain. However, the Privacy Act authorizes the disclosure of individual records to certain third parties and under certain circumstances. 5 U.S.C. 552a(b). Such authorized disclosures include disclosure to those officers and employees of the agency that maintains the record who have a need for the record in the performance of their duties; to the Bureau of the Census for carrying out a census; and to the Comptroller General.

Another authorized disclosure to third parties is disclosure for a routine use. 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3). The term "routine use" is defined by the Privacy Act to mean, with respect to the disclosure of a record, the use of such record for a purpose which is compatible with the purpose for which it was collected. 5 U.S.C. 552a(a)(7). In other words, routine use is the authorized disclosure of the record to third parties that is compatible with the purpose for which the information contained in the record was collected, in addition to those expressly specified in the Privacy Act.

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish in the Federal Register the existence of each system of records it maintains so that individuals may be able to find more easily those systems where records about them may be located. In addition, the Privacy Act requires that the publication include the routine uses of the records contained in each system, i.e., the third parties to whom they may be disclosed, in addition to those expressly specified by the Privacy Act. In compliance with that requirement, the Office of Federal Housing Enterprise Oversight (OFHEO) is publishing this notice of systems of records.

This notice of systems of records, as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), has been submitted to the Committee on Governmental Affairs of the U.S. Senate, the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight of the U.S. House of Representatives, and the Office of Management and Budget.
