SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Food Quality Protection Act (FQPA) (Pub. L. 104-170) was passed in 1996. This new law strengthens the nation's system for regulating pesticides on food. The TRAC was established by EPA and USDA to provide policy guidance on sound science, ways to increase transparency in decision-making, strategies for a reasonable transition for agriculture and ways to enhance consultations with stakeholders, as pesticide tolerances are reassessed, including those for organophosphates.

The TRAC is co-chaired by EPA Acting Deputy Administrator Peter Roberston and USDA Deputy Secretary Richard Rominger. The TRAC is a diverse group of stakeholders representing a broad range of interests, including farmers and growers; environmental and public interest groups; public health officials; pediatric experts; pesticide companies and trade associations; food processors and distributors; academicians; Federal agencies; tribal, State and local governments.

The TRAC meetings are open to the public under section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, Pub. L. 92-463. Outside statements will be limited to 3-5 minutes by each person or organization. Any person who wishes to file a written statement may do so before or after a TRAC meeting. These statements will become part of the official record and will be provided to the TRAC members. The official record will be available for public inspection at the address listed under ADDRESSES at the beginning of this document.

An agenda and background information are being developed and will be posted on the Agency's website one week prior to each meeting at: <http://www.epa.gov/pesticides/trac>.
