[Docket No. RP99-433-000]

National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation;
Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC
Gas Tariff

July 13, 1999.

Take notice that on July 8, 1999, National Fuel Gas Supply Corporation (National Fuel) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, the tariff First Revised Sheet No. 451, with a proposed effective date of August 7, 1999.

National Fuel states that the purpose of the instant filing is to revise the minimum bidding periods for open seasons for available firm capacity pursuant to GT&C Section 26 of its tariff. The revised tariff sheet specifies minimum bidding periods of one (1) business day for capacity which will be available for less than five months, three (3) business days for capacity that will be available for five months or more but less than twelve months, and five (5) business days for capacity that will be available for twelve months or longer.

National Fuel states that copies of this filing were served upon its customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).
