SUMMARY: The Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA), Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), is announcing an opportunity for public comment on the proposed collection of certain information by the agency. Under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) of 1995, Federal agencies are required to publish notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed extension of a currently approved collection, and allow 60 days for public comment in response to the notice. DATES: Written comments and recommendations on the proposed collection of information should be received on or before January 28, 2000.

ADDRESSES: Submit written comments on the collection of information to Nancy J. Kessinger, Veterans Benefits Administration (20S52), Department of Veterans Affairs, 810 Vermont Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20420. Please refer to "OMB Control No. 2900-0573" in any correspondence.

Title: Application for Extension of Eligibility Period under Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance (Title 38 CFR 21.3047).

OMB Control Number: 2900-0573.

Type of Review: Extension of a previously approved collection.

Abstract: VA is required by statute (Title 38, U.S.C., Section 3512) to extend the period of eligibility a spouse or surviving spouse has to use Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance (DEA) if during that period she or he was prevented from initiating or completing a program of education due to a physical or mental disability. VA has no way of knowing who needs such an extension unless the individual applies for it. In order for VA to make the proper decision on such an application, VA requires that the claimant provide medical evidence to support the claim that the disability exists. If VA doesn't collect supporting medical evidence, the department may give this extension to someone who doesn't meet the criteria for an extension, or, conversely, the department may deny the extension to someone who meets the criteria for an extension.

Estimated Average Burden Per Respondent: 60 minutes.
