

the use of toll-free numbers in a manner that would result in the calling party being charged for information conveyed during the call, unless the calling party (1) has executed a written agreement that specifies the material terms and conditions under which the information is provided, or (2) pays for the information by means of a prepaid account, credit, debit, charge, or calling card and the information service provider includes in response to each call an introductory message disclosing specified information detailing the cost and other terms and conditions for the service. The disclosure requirements are intended to ensure that consumers know when charges will be levied for calls to toll-free numbers and are able to obtain information necessary to make informed choices about whether to purchase toll-free information services.

OMB Control No.: 3060-0749.

Title: Section 64.1509, Disclosure and Dissemination of Pay-Per-Call Information.

Form No.: N/A.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit.

Number of Respondents: 25 respondents; 75 responses.

Estimated Time Per Response: 410 hours.

Frequency of Response: Third party disclosure requirement, annual and on occasion reporting requirement.

Total Annual Burden: 10,250 hours.

Total Annual Cost: N/A.

Needs and Uses: Common carriers that assign telephone numbers to pay-per-call services must disclose to all interested parties, upon request, a list of all assigned pay-per-call numbers. For each assigned number, carriers must also make available (1) a description of the pay-per-call service; (2) the total cost per minute or other fees associated with the service; and (3) the service provider's name, business address, and telephone number. In addition, carriers handling pay-per-call services must establish a toll-free number that consumers may call to receive information about pay-per-call services. Finally, the Commission requires carriers to provide statements of pay-per-call right and responsibilities to new telephone subscribers at the time service is established and, although not required by statute, to all subscribers annually.

OMB Control No.: 3060-0752.

Title: Section 64.1510, Billing Disclosure Requirements for Pay-Per-Call and Other Information Services.

Form No.: N/A.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit.

Number of Respondents: 1,350.

Estimated Time Per Response: 10-40 hours.

Frequency of Response: Third party disclosure requirement and annual reporting requirement.

Total Annual Burden: 54,000 hours.

Total Annual Cost: N/A.

Needs and Uses: Under Section 64.1510, telephone bills containing charges for interstate pay-per-call and other information services must include information detailing consumers' rights and responsibilities with respect to these charges. Specifically, telephone bills carrying pay-per-call charges must include a consumer notification stating that (1) the charges are for non-communication services; (2) local and long distance telephone services may not be disconnected for failure to pay-per-call charges; (3) pay-per-call (900 number) blocking is available upon request, and (4) access to pay-per-call services may be involuntarily blocked for failure to pay-per-call charges. In addition, each call billed must show the type of service, the amount of the charge, and the date, time, and duration of the call. Finally, the bill must display a toll-free number which subscribers may call to obtain information about pay-per-call services. Similar billing disclosure requirements apply to charges for information services either billed to subscribers on a collect basis or accessed by subscribers through a toll-free number. The billing disclosure requirements are intended to ensure that telephone subscribers billed for pay-per-call or other information services are able to understand the charges levied and are informed of their rights and responsibilities with respect to payment of such charges.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request Child Care Subsidy Application—Provider

AGENCY: Office of Child Care, GSA.

ACTION: Notice of request for approval of a new information collection entitled Child Care Subsidy Application—Provider.

SUMMARY: Under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35), GSA has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) a request to review and approve a new information collection concerning Child Care Subsidy Application—Provider. An emergency review was requested by OMB and notice was published in the Federal Register at 65 FR 24698, April 27, 2000. OMB approved the emergency collection and assigned OMB Control No. 3090-0275.

The proposed information collection activity is for approval of the form for implementation of a GSA child care subsidy for lower income GSA employees in accordance with provisions of the Office of Personnel Management Rules and Regulations 5 CFR Part 792, Agency Use of Appropriated Funds for Lower Income Employees. The rule was published March 14, 2000. The form would verify the child care fees paid by federal employees to licensed child care providers so that providers could be paid a portion of those fees by GSA. The rule requires funds to subsidize lower income employees' child care rates be
