DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCEEconomics and Statistics Administration*Decennial Census Advisory Committee

AGENCY: Economics and Statistics Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of public meeting.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463, as amended by Pub. L. 94-409, Pub. L. 96-523, and Pub. L. 97-375), we are giving notice of a meeting of the Decennial Census Advisory Committee. The Committee will address policy, research, and technical issues related to the American Community Survey, Census 2000 operations and activities and related decennial programs. Last minute changes to the schedule are possible, which could prevent us from giving advance notice.

DATES: On Thursday, September 21, 2000, the meeting will begin at 9 a.m. and adjourn at approximately 5 p.m. On Friday, September 22, 2000, the meeting will begin at 9 a.m. and adjourn at approximately 12:15 p.m.

ADDRESSES: The meeting is at the Hilton Alexandria Mark Center Hotel, 5000 Seminary Road, Alexandria, VA.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Maxine Anderson-Brown, Committee Liaison Officer, Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Room 1647, Federal Building 3, Washington, DC 20233; telephone 301-457-2308, TDD 301-457-2540.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Decennial Census Advisory Committee is composed of a Chair, Vice-Chair, and up to 40 member organizations, all appointed by the Secretary of Commerce. The Committee considers the goals of the decennial census and users' needs for information provided by that census. The Committee provides an outside user perspective about how research and design plans for the 2010 decennial census, and the development of the American Community Survey and other related programs, will realize those goals and satisfy those needs. The members of the Advisory Committee draw on their experience with Census 2000 planning and operational processes, results of research studies, test censuses, and results of the Census 2000 Evaluation Program to provide input on the design and related operations of the 2010 decennial census, the American Community Survey, and other related programs.

A brief period will be set aside at the meeting for public comment. However, individuals with extensive statements for the record must submit them in writing to the Commerce Department official named above at least three working days prior to the meeting. Seating is available to the public on a first-come, first-served basis.

The meeting is physically accessible to people with disabilities. Requests for sign language interpretation or other auxiliary aids should be directed to the Census Bureau Committee Liaison Officer on 301-457-2308, TDD 301-457-2540.

Dated: August 24, 2000.

James K. White,

Associate Under Secretary for Management, Economics and Statistics Administration.

BILLING CODE 3510-07-M

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCEBureau of Export Administration*Action Affecting Export Privileges; Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc.; Order Denying Export Privileges

On January 26, 2000, Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc. was convicted in the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana at Lafayette on multiple counts of violating the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (currently codified at 50 U.S.C.A. app. sections 2401-2420 (1991 & Supp. 2000)) (the Act),¹ among other crimes. Specifically, Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc. was convicted of knowingly and intentionally exporting United States military vehicles and military vehicle parts to Vietnam without obtaining the required export license from the Department of Commerce.

Section 11(h) of the Act provides that, at the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce,² no person convicted of violating the Act, or certain other provisions of the United States Code, shall be eligible to apply for or use any export license issued pursuant to, or provided by, the Act or the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 CFR parts 730-774 (2000), as amended (65 FR 14862, March 20, 2000)) (the Regulations), for a period of up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. In addition, any license issued pursuant to the Act in which such a person had any interest at the time of conviction may be revoked.

Pursuant to sections 766.25 and 750.8(a) of the Regulations, upon notification that a person has been convicted of violating the Act, the Director, Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, shall determine whether to deny that person's export privileges for a period of up to 10 years from the date of conviction and shall also determine whether to revoke any license previously issued to such a person.

Having received notice of Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc.'s conviction for violating ¹ The Act expired on August 20, 1994. Executive Order 12924 (3 C.F.R., 1994 Comp. 917 (1995)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent being that of August 3, 2000 (65 FR 48347, August 8, 2000), continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C.A. sections 1701-1706 (1991 & Supp. 2000)).

² Pursuant to appropriate delegations of authority that are reflected in the Regulations, the Director, Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, exercises the authority granted to the Secretary by Section 11(h) of the Act.

the Act, and after providing notice and an opportunity for Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc. to make a written submission to the Bureau of Export Administration before issuing an Order denying its export privileges, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Regulations, I, following consultations with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, have decided to deny Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc.'s export privileges for a period of 10 years from the date of its conviction. The 10-year period ends on January 26, 2010. I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act in which Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc. had an interest at the time of its conviction.

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered

I. Until January 26, 2010, Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc., 6157 Johnston Street, Lafayette, Louisiana 70503, may not, directly or indirectly, participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States, that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, License Exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefiting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations.

II. No person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export or reexport to or on behalf of the denied person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the denied person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the denied person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the denied person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the denied person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the denied person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the denied person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

III. After notice and opportunity for comment as provided in Section 766.23 of the Regulations, any person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc. by affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility in the conduct of trade or related services may also be subject to the provisions of this Order.

IV. This Order does not prohibit any export, reexport, or other transaction subject to the Regulations where the only items involved that are subject to the Regulations are the foreign-produced direct product of U.S.-origin technology.

V. This Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until January 26, 2010.

VI. In accordance with Part 756 of the Regulations, Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc. may file an appeal from this Order with the Under Secretary for Export Administration. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of Part 756 of the Regulations.

VII. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to Dien's Auto Salvage, Inc. This Order shall be published in the Federal Register.

Dated: August 22, 2000.

Eileen M. Albanese,

Director, Office of Exporter Services.

Foreign-Trade Zones Board

[Docket 52-2000]

Foreign-Trade Zone 44—Mount Olive, New Jersey, Area; Application for Expansion

An application has been submitted to the Foreign-Trade Zones (FTZ) Board (the Board), by the New Jersey Commerce and Economic Growth Commission, grantee of Foreign-Trade Zone 44, requesting authority to expand its zone in the Mt. Olive, New Jersey, area, within the New York/Newark Customs port of entry. The application was submitted pursuant to the provisions of the Foreign-Trade Zones Act, as amended (19 U.S.C. 81a-81u), and the regulations of the Board (15 CFR part 400). It was formally filed on August 22, 2000.

FTZ 44 was approved on October 19, 1978 (Board Order 139, 43 FR 50234, 10/27/78). The general-purpose zone currently consists of one site (77 acres) within the 650-acre International Trade Center located in the Mt. Olive Township of Morris County, New Jersey.

The applicant is now requesting authority to expand its general purpose zone to include an additional site: Proposed Site 2 (309 acres, 2 parcels)—Rockefeller Cranbury Industrial Park (Carter-Wallace, Inc./the Rockefeller Group), Half Acre Road and north of Cranbury Station Road in Cranbury Township, Middlesex County. No specific manufacturing requests are being made at this time. Such requests would be made to the Board on a case-by-case basis.

In accordance with the Board's regulations, a member of the FTZ Staff has been designated examiner to investigate the application and report to the Board.

Public comment on the application is invited from interested parties. Submissions (original and 3 copies) shall be addressed to the Board's Executive Secretary at the address below. The closing period for their receipt is October 30, 2000. Rebuttal comments in response to material submitted during the foregoing period may be submitted during the subsequent 15-day period to November 14, 2000.

A copy of the application and accompanying exhibits will be available for public inspection at each of the following locations:

Office of the Rockefeller Group, 500 International Drive—North, Suite 345, Mount Olive, NJ 07828;
