

in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request to be heard in opposition within this period, Elwood is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Elwood's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 12, 2001.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. Great Lakes Gas Transmission Limited Partnership; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 20, 2001.

Take notice that on March 16, 2001, Great Lakes Gas Transmission Limited Partnership (Great Lakes) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1 and Original Volume No. 2, the tariff sheets listed in Appendix A of the filing, to be effective April 27, 2001.

Great Lakes states that these tariff sheets are being filed to implement procedural, operational, and administrative changes to update and clarify various sections of its tariff. Great Lakes also states that none of the proposed changes will affect any of Great Lakes' currently effective rates and charges.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance). Panda Gila River, L.P.; Notice of Issuance of Order

March 20, 2001.

Panda Gila River, L.P. (Panda) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which Panda will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions at market-based rates. Panda also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Panda requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Panda.

On March 14, 2001, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Corporate Applications, Office of Markets, Tariffs and Rates, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Panda should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request to be heard in opposition within this period, Panda is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Panda's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 13, 2001.

Reliant Energy Gas Transmission Company; Notice Withdrawing Tariff Sheets

March 20, 2001.

Take notice that on March 13, 2001, Reliant Energy Gas Transmission Company (REGT) tendered for filing a notice that it was withdrawing tariff sheets filed September 22 and 25, 2000, in this docket. Such sheets were filed as part of REGT's proposed inkind balancing option for Shippers under Rate Schedule ANS. Although REGT submits that the tariff sheet never became effective, REGT also tendered for filing the following substitute tariff sheets, requesting a November 1, 2000 effective date, to restore the tariff provisions on the applicable sheets to those in effect prior to REGT's September filings:

Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 10
Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 71
Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 72
Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 74
Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 75
Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 76
Substitute Second Revised Sheet No. 311
Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 317

Any person desiring to protest said filings should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
