Even Start Family Literacy Program grants for Indian tribes and tribal organizations are awarded under Section 1202(a)(1)(C) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA). and parenting education into a unified family literacy program for federally recognized Indian tribes and tribal organizations.

Eligible Applicants: Federally recognized Indian tribes and tribal organizations. (The term "Indian tribe" and "tribal organization" have the meanings given those terms in section 4 of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act.)

Available Funds: The Secretary estimates that there will be sufficient FY 2001 funds for 6-10 new grants.

Federal and local funding: An Even Start Family Literacy project's funding is comprised of both a Federal portion of funds (Federal share) and a portion contributed by the eligible applicant (local project share). The Federal share of the project may not exceed—

Indirect costs: Recipients of an Even Start Indian tribe and tribal organization grant may not use funds awarded under this competition for the indirect costs of a project, or claim indirect costs as part of the local project share. Grant recipients may request the Secretary to waive this requirement. To obtain a waiver, however, the recipient must demonstrate to the Secretary's satisfaction that the recipient otherwise would not be able to participate in the Even Start Family Literacy Program.
