C-Cor.Net Corp; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 6, 2001, applicable to workers of C-Cor.net Corporation, State College, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 5, 2001 (66 FR 18117).

At the request of the petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that worker separations occurred at the Tipton, Pennsylvania facility of C-Cor.net Corporation. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of cable television amplifiers.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover works of C-Cor.net Corporation, Tipton, Pennsylvania.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of C-Cor.net Corporation adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-38,690 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of C-Cor.net Corporation, State College, Pennsylvania (TA-W-38,690) and Tipton, Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania (TA-W-38,690A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 6, 2000 through March 6, 2003 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington DC this 30th day of May, 2001.

38,442C]Amended Certification Regarding
Eligibility To Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 13, 2001, applicable to workers of CMI Industries, Inc., Clinton Fabric Division, Clinton, South Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 2, 2001 (66 FR 22007).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that worker separations occurred at the Vance Complex and the Administrative Office of the Clinton Fabric Division of CMI Industries, Clinton, South Carolina. The Vance Complex workers are engaged in the production of griegie woven fabric. Workers at the Administrative Office, Clinton Fabric Division, CMI Industries provide administrative services to support the production of griegie woven fabric at the subject firms' manufacturing facilities.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of the Vance Complex and Administrative Office, CMI Industries, Clinton Fabric Division, Clinton, South Carolina.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of CMI Industries, Inc. who were adversely affected by increased imports of griegie woven fabric.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-38,442 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of CMI Industries, Inc., Clinton Fabric Division, Clinton, South Carolina (TA-W-38,442) and Clinton Fabric Division, Vance Complex, Clinton, South Carolina (TA-W-38,442B) and Clinton Fabric Division, Administrative Office, Clinton, South Carolina (TA-W-38,442C) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 4, 1999 through April 13, 2003 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 30th day of May, 2001.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR*Employment and Training
Administration*Notice of Determinations Regarding
Eligibility To Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA
Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) issued during the period of May, 2001.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222 of the Act must be met.

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of the firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker
Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-38,978; Americo Group, Inc., New York, NY: March 22, 2000.

Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (P.L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with section 250(a), Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the month of May, 2001.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of Section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(2) That sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(3) That imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased, and that the increases in ports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(4) That there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criteria (3) and (4) were not met. Imports from Canada or Mexico did not contribute importantly to workers' separations. There was no shift in production from the subject firm to Canada or Mexico during the relevant period.

NAFTA-TAA-04675; Specialty Plastic Products, Louisville, TN

Lanier Clothes Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., et al., Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 7, 2001, applicable to workers of Lanier Clothes, Greenville, Georgia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 5, 2001 (66 FR 18117).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the fusing of men's suits. New information shows that worker separations occurred at the Oxford Transport facility of Oxford

Industries, Inc., Buford, Georgia. The Buford Georgia facility provides administrative support services to the subject firms' production facilities, including Lanier Clothes.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include the workers of the Oxford Transport facility of Oxford Industries, Buford, Georgia, and to correctly identify the subject firm title name to read Lanier Clothes, Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., Greenville, Georgia.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Lanier Clothes, Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., Greenville, Georgia who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-38,657 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Lanier Clothes, Division of Oxford Industries, Inc., Greenville, Georgia (TA-W-38,657) engaged in fusing operations, and workers of Oxford Transport, Oxford Industries, Inc., Buford, Georgia (TA-W-38,657A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 19, 2001, through March 7, 2003, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 31st day of May, 2001.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to section 221(a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under title II, chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitions or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than June 25, 2001.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than June 25, 2001.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Room C-5311, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC this 30th day of April, 2001.
