

regardless of whether or not they participated in the 2000 PIK Program.

(b) Participants in the 2001 PIK Program will be ineligible to participate in any future sugar PIK diversion program if they plant or have an interest in, directly or indirectly, more total acres to sugar beets or sugar cane in future years than in 2001.

5. Bid Rankings

CCC will rank eligible bids on the basis of the bid amount as a percentage of the bid cap, which is CCC's estimate of the value of the diverted sugar production. Eligible bids with the lowest of such percentages will be selected first. In the case of bids with identical ranking, selection will be based on random selection or pro rata shares, as CCC deems appropriate.

Signed in Washington, D.C., on September 7, 2001.

BILLING CODE 3410-05-P

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Forest Service

Transfer of Administrative

Jurisdiction: Fort Leonard Wood Military Reservation Interchange, Mark Twain National Forest, MO

AGENCY: Forest Service, USDA.

ACTION: Notice of land interchange.

SUMMARY: On June 18, 2001, and June 29, 2001, respectively, the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of Agriculture signed a joint interchange order authorizing the transfer of administrative jurisdiction from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of the Army for 9,990 acres, more or less (Exhibit B), lying within the Fort Leonard Wood Military Reservation and the Mark Twain National Forest, Pulaski County, Missouri. Furthermore, the order transfers from the Department of the Army to the Department of Agriculture for inclusion in the Mark Twain National Forest 1,819 acres, more or less (Exhibit A), within the boundaries of the Mark Twain National Forest, Pulaski and Laclede Counties, Missouri. At this time, however, only 1,769 acres, more or less, are being transferred to the Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, and 50 acres are being retained under the jurisdiction of the Army. These 50 acres (Exhibit C) have been identified as possibly containing ordnance, explosives, or other hazardous materials and will not be transferred until necessary response actions have been completed as acceptable to the Department of Agriculture, Forest Service. Upon completion of the environmental response activities, as agreed by the Army and the Forest Service, the Forest Service will publish a notice in the Federal Register that the lands described in Exhibit C are deemed transferred to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Agriculture as provided in the joint interchange order. Copies of the joint order, as signed, and Exhibits A, B and C, which describe the lands therein being conveyed and those lands excluded from jurisdictional change to the Forest Service until completion of investigation and remediation by the Army, are set out at the end of this notice.

DATES: The 45-day Congressional oversight requirement of the Act of July 26, 1956 (70 Stat. 656; 16 U.S.C. 505a, 505b) has been met. The order is effective September 12, 2001.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the maps showing the lands included in this joint interchange are on file and available for public inspection in the Office of the Director, Lands Staff, 4th Floor—South, Sidney R. Yates Federal Building, Forest Service, USDA, 201 14th Street, SW., Washington, DC 20250, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on business days. Those wishing to inspect the maps are encouraged to call ahead to (202) 205-1248 to facilitate entry into the building.

Deputy Chief for National Forest System.

Department of the Army

Department of Agriculture

Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri—Joint Order Interchanging Administrative Jurisdiction of Department of the Army Lands and National Forest System Lands

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act of July 26, 1956, (70 Stat. 656; 16 U.S.C. 505a, 505b), it is ordered as follows:

1. The lands under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Army described in Exhibit A and shown on a map on file and available for public inspection in the Office of the Chief, U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), Forest Service, Washington, DC, which lie within the boundary of Fort Leonard Wood Military Reservation, Missouri, are hereby transferred from the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Army to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Agriculture, subject to outstanding rights or interests of record.

2. The lands under the jurisdiction of the USDA Forest Service described in Exhibit B and shown on a map on file and available for public inspection in the office of the Chief, USDA Forest Service, Washington, DC, which lie within the Mark Twain National Forest, Missouri, are hereby transferred from the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Agriculture to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Army, subject to outstanding rights or interests of record.

3. All lands described in Exhibit C that have been identified as possibly containing ordnance, explosives, or other hazardous materials will be retained under Army jurisdiction until necessary response actions are completed as acceptable to the USDA Forest Service. Upon completion of the environmental response activities, as agreed upon by the Army and the Forest Service pursuant to a Memorandum of Understanding dated May 23, 2001 and June 6, 2001, the Forest Service shall publish a notice in the Federal Register that the lands described in Exhibit C are deemed transferred to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Agriculture as provided in this Joint Interchange Order.

4. Subject to the condition in Paragraph 3 and pursuant to section 2 of the aforementioned Act of July 26, 1956, the National Forest System lands transferred to the Secretary of Army by this Joint Interchange Order, are hereby subject only to the laws applicable to the Department of the Army lands comprising Fort Leonard Wood Military Reservation, Missouri. The Department of the Army lands transferred to the Secretary of Agriculture by this order are hereafter subject only to the laws applicable to lands acquired under the Act of March 1, 1911 (36 Stat. 961), as amended. Subject to the condition in Paragraph 3, the boundary of Fort Leonard Wood Military Reservation is hereby adjusted to exclude all of the lands transferred to the Secretary of Agriculture and include all lands received by the Secretary of Army, subject to outstanding rights or interests of record. Also subject to paragraph 3, pursuant to section 11 of the Weeks Act (16 U.S.C. 521), the boundary of the Mark Twain National Forest is hereby modified to include those lands transferred from the Secretary of the Army to the Secretary of Agriculture.

5. Any environmental liability created by the Department of the Army's use of the lands described in Exhibits A, and B, and C shall be the Army's sole responsibility as provided for in the Memorandum of Understanding entered into by the Department of the Army and the USDA Forest Service and signed by each on May 23, 2001 and June 6, 2001, respectively. After the effective date of this Joint Interchange Order, the Department of the Army shall remain responsible for the response to any ordnance, explosives, hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants discovered on all lands described in Exhibits A and B that are the result of past Army operations on those lands or that occurred during the Army's administration of those lands.

This Joint Interchange Order will be effective as of the date of publication in the Federal Register.

Dated: June 18, 2001.

Thomas E. White,
Secretary of the Army.

Dated: June 29, 2001.

Ann M. Veneman,
Secretary of Agriculture.
