SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On February 22, 2001, the district court approved a class action settlement agreement in the case of Walters v. Reno, Civ. No. 94-1204C (W.D. WA). The lawsuit challenged the Service's implementation of the civil document fraud provisions of section 274C of the Act. Specifically, certain aliens claimed that the Service's procedures and forms inadequately informed them of their rights to dispute or contest charges that they committed document fraud in violation of section 274C of the Act.

Pursuant to the agreement, on August 21, 2001, the Service completed vacating all section 274C final orders issued against class members. The Service is not permitted to recharge such class members under section 274C of the Act for the same conduct charged in the original Notice of Intent to Fine (NIF). Further, the Service is not permitted to charge class members as being deportable under section 237(a)(3)(C) of the Act or inadmissible under section 212(a)(6)(F) of the Act based on the same conduct charged in the original NIF.

The settlement agreement requires the Service, in certain instances, to join in a motion to re-calendar, reopen or remand deportation proceedings. The settlement agreement also provides class members with avenues for administrative and judicial review of any determinations made pursuant to the settlement agreement. Finally, the settlement agreement permits class members who previously paid section 274C civil money penalties to the Service to seek refunds for such payments.

Who is Considered a Class Member Under the Walters v. Reno Settlement Agreement?

All non-citizens who waived or failed to request a hearing under Section 274C of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA") after being served, prior to October 1996, with the charging forms and a notice of intent to fine challenged in Walters v. Reno.

The settlement agreement in Walters v. Reno, however, does not include any alien who was the subject of a notice of intent to fine if the alien did request a hearing under section 274C before an administrative law judge in the Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer, as provided in 28 CFR part 68. Thus, an alien who is subject to a section 274C final order is not a class member if he or she had requested a hearing with respect to that order, and, accordingly, the provisions of the
