

9. Concluding Ceremony.

The FCC has established the Public Safety National Coordination Committee, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, to advise the Commission on a variety of issues relating to the use of the 24 MHz of spectrum in the 764–776/794–806 MHz frequency bands (collectively, the 700 MHz band) that has been allocated to public safety services. See the Development of Operational, Technical and Spectrum Requirements For Meeting Federal, State and Local Public Safety Agency Communications Requirements Through the Year 2010 and Establishment of Rules and Requirements For Priority Access Service, WT Docket No. 96–86, First Report and Order and Third Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, FCC 98–191, 14 FCC Rcd 152 (1998), 63 FR 58645 (11–2–98).

The NCC has an open membership. Previous expressions of interest in membership have been received in response to several public notices inviting interested persons to become members and to participate in the NCC's processes. All persons who have previously identified themselves or have been designated as a representative of an organization are deemed members and are invited to attend. All other interested parties are hereby invited to attend and to participate in the NCC processes and its meetings and to become members of the Committee. This policy will ensure balanced participation. Members of the general public may attend the meeting. To attend the 20th meeting of the Public Safety National Coordination Committee, please RSVP to Joy Alford of the Policy and Rules Branch of the Public Safety and Private Wireless Division, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau of the FCC by calling (202) 418–0680, by faxing (202) 418–2643, or by E-mailing at jalford@fcc.gov. Please provide your name, the organization you represent, your phone number, fax number and e-mail address. This RSVP is for the purpose of determining the number of people who will attend this 20th meeting. The FCC will attempt to accommodate as many people as possible. However, admittance will be limited to the seating available. Persons requesting accommodations for hearing disabilities should contact Joy Alford immediately at (202) 418–7233 (TTY). Persons requesting accommodations for other physical disabilities should contact Joy Alford immediately at (202) 418–0694 or via e-mail at jalford@fcc.gov. The public may submit written comments to the NCC's Designated Federal Officer before the meeting.

Additional information about the NCC and NCC-related matters can be found on the NCC Web site located at: <http://wireless.fcc.gov/publicsafety/ncc>.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

[FMR Bulletin 2003-B3]

Federal Management Regulation; GSA Personal Property Sales Services and Rates

AGENCY: Federal Supply Service, GSA.

ACTION: Notice of a bulletin.

SUMMARY: The attached bulletin provides the services and rates for the sale of surplus and exchange/sale personal property. The basic services that GSA offers and the rates for those services are shown in Attachment A to the bulletin.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bulletin is effective June 1, 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Lynne Price, General Services Administration, Federal Supply Service (FSS), Washington, DC 20405; e-mail, lynne.price@gsa.gov, telephone (703) 308-0643.

Dated: June 16, 2003.

Jon A. Jordan,

Controller, Federal Supply Service.

GSA Personal Property Sales Services and Rates

To: Heads of Federal Agencies
Subject: GSA Personal Property Sales Services and Rates

1. Purpose. This bulletin provides the services and rates for the sale of surplus and exchange/sale personal property. The basic services that GSA offers and the rates for those services are shown in Attachment A.

2. Applicability. This bulletin applies to sales of surplus and exchange/sale personal property in the United States for executive agencies.

3. Effective date. This bulletin is effective June 1, 2003.

4. Expiration date. This bulletin is effective until canceled or revised.

5. Cancellation. GSA Bulletin FPMR H-77 is cancelled.

6. Background. Section 573 of title 40 of the United States Code states that the Administrator of General Services may retain from the proceeds of sales of personal property conducted by the General Services Administration (GSA) amounts necessary to recover, to the extent practicable, costs incurred by GSA (or its agent) in conducting such sales.

7. Charges.

a. GSA establishes rates for the services it provides in personal property sales. GSA does not bill its customers for these services. Instead, GSA deducts its service charges from the proceeds of the sale. This method frees customers from establishing separate systems for certification and payment of bills and does not affect agency operating budgets.

b. If sales proceeds are reimbursable to the holding agency under Title 40 or under separate statutory authority, net proceeds (sales proceeds less GSA's basic service rates and supplemental charges) will be distributed to the agency via the on-line payment and accounting contract (IPAC) system.

c. If sales proceeds are nonreimbursable, GSA will retain the expenses of sale. Except as otherwise authorized by law, the net proceeds will be deposited to miscellaneous receipts of the Treasury.

8. Supplemental services and rates. GSA may charge for supplemental services and these charges will be deducted from the sales proceeds. (Some examples include: Transportation, storage, maintenance, vehicle preparation, security services, travel expenses, portable restroom facilities, and special media advertising.) Rates for supplemental services will vary according to local market conditions. GSA publishes these rates in GSA regional bulletins available from the servicing regional GSA sales office.

9. Consultation. GSA will consult with customers to determine the best method of sale and their requirements for supplemental services.

10. Property resale. Property for which the sale contract is terminated for default will be resold at no cost to the holding agency. Property for which the sale contract is terminated for cause, for example, misdescription of the property, will be resold at the holding agency's cost if the cause is attributable to the holding agency.

By delegation of the Commissioner,
Federal Supply Service.

Jon A. Jordan,
Controller.
