Bath Unlimited, Inc., a Division of Masco Corporation Doing Business as Melard Manufacturing Corporation, Passaic, New Jersey; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 4, 2002, applicable to workers of Bath Unlimited, Inc., a Division of MASCO Corp., Passaic, New Jersey. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 5, 2002 (67 FR 67418).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of showerhead and plumbing repair products.

New information provided by the State shows that Bath Unlimited is doing business as Melard Manufacturing Corporation as of January 1, 2002. Information also shows that workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Melard Manufacturing Corporation.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Bath Unlimited, Inc. who were adversely affected by imports. The amended notice applicable to TA-W-42,107 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Bath Unlimited, Inc., a division of MASCO Corp., doing business as Melard Manufacturing Corporation, Passaic, New Jersey, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 28, 2001, through October 4, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC this 13th day of January 2003.

Linda G. Poole,
Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Bike Athletic Company, Knoxville, TN; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 4, 2002, applicable to workers of Bike Athletic Company, Cutting Department, Knoxville, Tennessee. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 23, 2002 (67 FR 78256).

The Union of Needletrades, Industrial and Textile Employees, Tennessee/Kentucky requested that the Department expand the certification to include all workers of the subject firm. The Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The findings show that the Department issued certification coverage to all workers of the subject firm's Cutting Department.

The investigation conducted for the subject firm was on behalf of workers manufacturing (cut fabric) men's and women's athletic team apparel. The investigation revealed that company imports of men's and women's athletic team apparel increased while production and employment declined during the period of the investigation, thus impacting all workers of the subject firm.

It is the intent of the Department to include all workers of Bike Athletic Company adversely affected by increased imports. Therefore, the Department is amending the certification determination to correctly identify the worker group to read all workers.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-50,167 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Bike Athletic Company, Knoxville, Tennessee who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 21, 2001, through December 4, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC this 14th day of January 2003.

Elliott S. Kushner,
Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Chiquola Industrial Products Group LLC, Honea Path, South Carolina and Chiquola Industrial Products Group LLC, Abbeville, South Carolina; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 19, 2002, applicable to workers of Chiquola Industrial Products Group LLC, Honea Path, South Carolina. The notice will soon be published in the Federal Register.

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produced industrial fabrics. Information contained in the record shows that the company intended workers in Abbeville, South Carolina to be included in the certification. The workers at both South Carolina locations are considered by the company as one worker group. Data collected from the company official were for both locations.

It is the Department's intent to include all workers of Chiquola Industrial Products Group LLC, adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to include all workers of Chiquola Industrial Products Group LLC, located in Abbeville, South Carolina.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-50,094 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Chiquola Industrial Products Group LLC, Honea Path, South Carolina (TA-W-50,094) and Abbeville, South Carolina (TA-W-50,094A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 5, 2001, through December 19, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Harvard Industries, Inc., Corporate Headquarters, Lebanon, New Jersey; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, an investigation was initiated on December 9, 2002 in response to a worker petition that was filed on behalf of workers at Harvard Industries, Inc., Corporate Headquarters, Lebanon, New Jersey.

An active certification covering the petitioning group of workers is already in effect (TA-W-41,871, as amended). Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 17th day of January 2003.

Harvard Industries, Inc., Albion Division, Albion, Michigan and Harvard Industries, Inc., Corporate Headquarters, Lebanon, New Jersey; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on September 10, 2002, applicable to workers of Harvard Industries, Inc., Albion Division, Albion, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 27, 2002 (67 FR 61161).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The company reports that worker separations occurred at the Corporate Headquarters located in Lebanon, New Jersey. The workers at the Lebanon, New Jersey location provide support services (legal, payroll, human resources, tax, etc.) supporting the production of auto parts, castings and stampings at the Albion Division, Albion, Michigan facility of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Harvard Industries, Inc., Corporate Headquarters, Lebanon, New Jersey.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Harvard Industries, Albion Division, who were adversely affected by increased customer imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-41,871 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Harvard Industries, Inc., Albion Division, Albion, Michigan (TA-W-41,871), and Harvard Industries, Inc., Corporate Headquarters, Lebanon, New Jersey (TA-W-41,871A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 27, 2001, through September 10, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."
