Dear Mr. Alvarez: Pursuant to section 54.521 of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission (the "Commission"), by this Notice of Debarment you are hereby debarred from the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism for a period of three years.¹

On August 21, 2003, the Enforcement Bureau (the "Bureau") sent you a Notice of Suspension and Proposed Debarment (the "Notice of Suspension").² That Notice of Suspension was published in the Federal Register on October 2, 2003.³ The Notice of Suspension suspended you from the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism⁴ and described the basis for your proposed debarment,⁵ the applicable debarment procedures,⁶ and the effect of debarment.⁷

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, any opposition to your suspension or its scope or to your proposed debarment or its scope had to be filed with the Commission no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the earlier date of your receipt of the Notice of Suspension or publication of the Notice of Suspension in the Federal Register.⁸ The Commission did not receive any such opposition.

As discussed in the Notice of Suspension, on May 20, 2003, you pled guilty attempting to persuade two school administrators not to show to Commission auditors a letter signed by your employer that falsely represented that the school could participate in the E-Rate program at no cost.⁹ Such conduct constitutes the basis for your debarment, and your conviction falls within the categories of causes for debarment under section 54.521(c)

Re: Notice of Suspension and of Proposed
Debarment, File No. EB-03-IHD-0377.

Dear Mr. Alvarez: The Federal Communications Commission ("FCC" or "Commission") has received notice of your May 20, 2003 conviction pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1512 for misleading conduct toward another person: (1) To influence, delay, or prevent the testimony of any person in an official proceeding; and (2) with the intent to cause and induce another person to alter, destroy, mutilate and conceal objects with the intent to impair the objects' integrity and availability for use in an official proceeding.¹³ Consequently, pursuant to 47 CFR 54.521, this letter constitutes official notice of your suspension from the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism. In addition, the Enforcement Bureau ("Bureau") hereby notifies you that we are commencing debarment proceedings against you.¹⁴

¹¹ See Notice of Suspension, 18 FCC Rcd at 16670.

¹² See 47 CFR 54.521(a)(1), 54.521(a)(5), 54.521(d); Notice of Suspension, 18 FCC Rcd at 16670.

¹³ Any further reference in this letter to "your conviction" refers to your May 20, 2003 guilty plea and conviction of this count based on your attempt to persuade two school administrators not to reveal evidence to FCC auditors conducting an official investigation into violations by your employer, Connect2 Internet Networks, Inc. ("Connect2") of the FCC rules governing the E-Rate schools and libraries internet funding program ("E-Rate program"). See United States v. Alvarez, Criminal Docket No. 1:03cr634, Felony Information at 1-2 (S.D.N.Y. filed May 20, 2003) ("Alvarez Felony Information").

I. Notice of Suspension

Pursuant to section 54.521(a)(4) of the Commission's rules,¹⁵ your conviction requires the Bureau to suspend you from participating in any activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries fund mechanism, including the receipt of funds or discounted services through the schools and libraries fund mechanism, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the schools and libraries support mechanism.¹⁶ Your suspension becomes effective upon the earlier of your receipt of this letter or publication of notice in the Federal Register.¹⁷

Suspension is immediate pending the Bureau's final debarment determination. You may contest this suspension or the scope of this suspension by filing arguments in opposition to the suspension, with any relevant documentation. Your request must be received within 30 days after you receive this letter or after notice is published in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.¹⁸ Such requests, however, will not ordinarily be granted.¹⁹ The Bureau may reverse or limit the scope of suspension only upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances.²⁰ Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Bureau will decide any request for reversal or modification of suspension within 90 days of its receipt of such request.²¹

II. Notice of Proposed Debarment

A. Reasons for and Cause of Debarment

The Commission's rules establish procedures to prevent persons who have "defrauded the government or engaged in similar acts through activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism" from receiving the benefits associated with that program.²² On May 20, 2003, you pleaded guilty to attempting to persuade two school administrators not to show to FCC auditors a letter signed by your employer that falsely represented that the school could participate in the E-Rate program at "absolutely no cost to the school." ²³ These actions constitute the conduct or transactions upon which this debarment proceeding is based.²⁴ Moreover, your conviction on the basis of these acts falls within the categories of causes for debarment defined in section 54.521(c) of the Commission's rules.²⁵ Therefore, pursuant to section 54.521(a)(4) of the Commission's rules, your conviction requires the Bureau to commence debarment proceedings against you.

B. Debarment Procedures

You may contest debarment or the scope of the proposed debarment by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within 30 calendar days of the earlier of the receipt of this letter or of publication in the Federal Register.²⁶ Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Bureau will debar you.²⁷ Within 90 days of receipt of any opposition to your suspension and proposed debarment, the Bureau, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, will provide you with notice of its decision to debar.²⁸ If the Bureau decides to debar you, its decision will become effective upon the earlier of your receipt of a debarment notice or publication of its decision in the Federal Register.²⁹

C. Effect of Debarment

If and when your debarment becomes effective, you will be prohibited from participating in activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism for at least three years from the date of debarment.³⁰ The Bureau may, if necessary to protect the public interest, extend the debarment period.³¹

Re: Notice of Debarment, File No. EB-03-IHD-0376.

Dear Mr. Angelides: Pursuant to section 54.521 of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission (the "Commission"), by this Notice of Debarment you are hereby debarred from the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism for a period of three years.¹

On August 21, 2003, the Enforcement Bureau (the "Bureau") sent you a Notice of Suspension and Proposed Debarment (the "Notice of Suspension").² That Notice of Suspension was published in the Federal Register on October 2, 2003.³ The Notice of Suspension suspended you from the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism⁴ and described the basis for your proposed debarment,⁵ the applicable

debarment procedures,⁶ and the effect of debarment.⁷

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, any opposition to your suspension or its scope or to your proposed debarment or its scope had to be filed with the Commission no later than thirty (30) calendar days from your receipt of the Notice of Suspension or publication of the Notice of Suspension in the Federal Register, whichever came first.⁸ On or about September 22, 2003, the Bureau granted your request to extend the time to contest issues raised in the Notice of Suspension until October 14, 2003.⁹ The Bureau received your response on that date.¹⁰ Your Response explicitly states that you do not challenge your debarment.¹¹ The Response merely "emphasizes" that this proceeding is directed "only against Mr. Angelides."¹² The Bureau notes that the Notice of Suspension and the Notice of Debarment are addressed to and applicable to you, Mr. Angelides, individually, and not to any other person or entity. Such limitation does not bar the Commission from taking additional enforcement action, subject to its rules, against such other persons or entities.

As discussed in the Notice of Suspension, on May 22, 2003, you pled guilty to charges of falsely representing to schools that they could participate in the E-Rate program at no cost, falsely representing to fund administrators and Government investigators that the schools would pay or had paid their unsubsidized share, falsifying documents, and attempting to persuade school administrators not to reveal evidence to Government investigators in order to conceal the scheme.¹³ Such conduct constitutes the basis for your debarment, and your conviction falls within the categories of causes for debarment under section 54.521(c) of the Commission's rules.¹⁴ For the foregoing reasons, you are hereby debarred for a period of three years from the debarment date, i.e., the earlier date of your receipt of this Notice of Debarment or its publication in the Federal Register.¹⁵ Debarment excludes you, for the debarment period, from activities "associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism," including "the receipt of funds or discounted services through the schools and libraries support mechanism, or
