Synopsis

In the June 17, 2003 Second Improved TRS Order, the Commission required that TRS providers offer three-way calling as a standard feature of TRS. In the August 1, 2003 Declaratory Ruling, the Commission recognized captioned telephone service as a type of TRS. (See Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, published at 68 FR 55898, September 29, 2003, in CC Docket No. 98-67; FCC 03-190. The Declaratory Ruling did not waive the requirement that providers of captioned telephone service offer a three-way calling feature. On September 24, 2003, AT&T Corp. (AT&T) filed a petition for limited reconsideration of the Second Improved TRS Order. (See AT&T, AT&T Petition for Limited Reconsideration and for Waiver, CC Docket No. 98-67, CG Docket No. 03-123 (filed September 24, 2003)). AT&T requested that the Commission waive the three-way calling requirement adopted in the Second Improved TRS Order. AT&T asserted that it was not possible for the TRS facility to set up a three-way call, subject to clarification regarding how three-way calling may be provided in compliance with the Commission's TRS regulations. On December 11, 2003, Ultratec, Inc. and Sprint Corporation filed a petition seeking clarification that the three-way calling requirement either does not apply to captioned telephone service or that a TRS provider complies with the rule regardless of the method used to set up the three-way call. (See Petition for Clarification by Ultratec, Inc. and Sprint Corporation, CC Docket No. 98-67, CG Docket No. 03-123 (file December 11, 2003)). On February 24, 2004, in response to these petitions, the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau released an Order waiving for one year the requirement that TRS providers (including providers of captioned telephone service) offer three-way calling. (Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, CC Docket 98-67, DA 04-465, 19 FCC Rcd 2993 (February 24, 2004)). In view of the pending expiration date of the one-year February 24, 2004, waiver, the Commission now seek comment on whether this waiver should be left to expire or be extended, or whether the rule should be modified or clarified and, if so, how.
