

pollution control devices are properly installed and operated, and the standard is being met. Performance test reports are needed as these are the Agency's records of a source's initial capability to comply with the emission standards, and serve as a record of the operating conditions under which compliance was achieved. The information generated by monitoring, recordkeeping and reporting requirements described in this ICR is used by the Agency to ensure that facilities affected by the standard continue to operate the control equipment and achieve continuous compliance with the regulation.

All reports are sent to the delegated state or local authority. In the event that there is no such delegated authority, the reports are sent directly to the EPA regional office.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. The OMB Control Numbers for EPA's regulations are listed in 40 CFR part 9 and 48 CFR chapter 15, and are identified on the form and/or instrument, if applicable.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information are estimated to average 198 hours per response. Burdens means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities: Owners or operators of municipal waste combustors.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 12.

Frequency of Response: Initially, quarterly, semiannually, annually.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 20,421 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Costs: $1,635,293, which includes $60,000 annualized capital/startup costs, $99,000 (rounded) annual O&M costs, and $1,476,293 annual labor costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is an increase of 8,536 hours in the total estimated burden currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens. This is due to an increase in the number of sources from eight to twelve from the most recently approved ICR.

Any comments related to this ICR should be submitted to EPA and OMB within 30 days of this notice. EPA's policy is that public comments, whether submitted electronically or in paper, will be made available for public viewing in EDOCKET as EPA receives them and without change, unless the comment contains copyrighted material, confidential business information, (CBI), or other information whose public disclosure is restricted by statute. When EPA identifies a comment containing copyrighted material, EPA will provide a reference to that material in the version of the comment that is placed in EDOCKET. The entire printed comment, including the copyrighted material, will be available in the public docket. Although identified as an item in the official docket, information claimed as CBI, or whose disclosure is otherwise restricted by statute, is not included in the official public docket, and will not be available for public viewing in EDOCKET. For further information about the electronic docket, see EPA's Federal Register notice describing the electronic docket at 67 FR 38102 (May 31, 2002), or go to <http://www.epa.gov/edocket>.

Title: Source Compliance and State Action Reporting (Renewal).

Abstract: Source Compliance and State Action Reporting is an activity whereby State, District, Local, and Commonwealth governments (hereafter referred to as "states/locals" or "state and local agencies") make air compliance information available to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA or the Agency) on a cyclic basis via input to the Air Facility System (AFS). The information provided to EPA includes compliance activities and determinations, and enforcement activities. EPA uses this information to assess progress toward meeting emission requirements developed under the authority of the Clean Air Act (CAA or the Act) to protect and maintain the atmospheric environment and the public health. The EPA and many of the state and local agencies access the data in AFS to assist them in the management of their air pollution control programs. This renewal information collection request (ICR) affects oversight of approximately 41,500 stationary sources by 93 state and local agencies and the Federal EPA, and is expected to require 144,089 labor hours per year and cost approximately $5.5 million annually. State and local agency burdens and costs are estimated as 110,809 hours and approximately $3.7 million annually. On average, this burden amounts to approximately one-third of a full-time equivalent employee for each small state and local agency, three-fourths of a full-time equivalent employee for each medium sized state and local agency and one and one-third of a full-time equivalent employee for each large sized state and local agency for national reporting of compliance- and enforcement-related data under all of the applicable Clean Air Act programs. The first notice for the renewal of this collection sought to add the following new reporting requirements: Addition of the subpart identifier in the air program record, addition of the pollutant code to stack test actions, addition of the High Priority Violator (HPV) "Violation Discovered" activity and date, addition of the HPV violation type code and violating pollutants, revised reporting frequency for state/local agencies from quarterly to 30 days, reporting all Partial Compliance Evaluations (PCEs), and the reporting of Permit Program Data Elements (PPDEs).

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. The OMB Control Numbers for EPA's regulations are listed in 40 CFR part 9 and 48 CFR chapter 15, and are identified on the form and/or instrument, if applicable.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 18,468 hours per response (six responses per year for a state/local agency). Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities: State, local or tribal government.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 93.

Frequency of Response: Six times per year.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 110,809 hours.

Estimated Total Capital Annual Costs: $3,699,481, which includes $0 annualized capital/startup costs, $0 annual O&M costs, and $3,699,481 annual labor costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is an increase of 25,313 hours in the total estimated burden currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens. This increase was attributable to several new data elements added to the new Minimum Data Requirements (MDRs) in this renewal ICR, with an adjustment to the baseline count of hours. The new MDRs will not be effective until October 1, 2005.
