General Description of Report: These information collections are mandatory: 12 U.S.C. 93a, 161, 3907–9 (OCC); 12 U.S.C. 1462, 1463, 1464, 1467, and 1828 (OTS); 12 U.S.C. 324 and 1844(c) (Board); and 12 U.S.C. 1831(o) (FDIC). The written implementation plan and prior approvals are given confidential treatment (5 U.S.C. 552 (b)(8)).

Abstract: On December 7, 2007, the agencies issued the joint final rule titled Risk-Based Capital Standards: Advanced Capital Adequacy Framework (final rule) implementing a new risk-based regulatory capital framework for institutions in the United States. The final rule requires certain large or internationally active banks and bank holding companies (BHCs) to (1) adopt a written implementation plan, (2) update that plan for any mergers, (3) obtain prior written approvals for the use of certain approaches for determining risk-weighted assets, and (4) make certain public disclosures regarding their capital ratios, their components, and information on implicit support provided to a securitization. There are no required reporting forms associated with this information collection.

Request for Comment

Comments are invited on:

a. Whether the information collections are necessary for the proper performance of the agencies' functions, including whether the information has practical utility;

b. The accuracy of the agencies' estimates of the burden of the information collections, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

c. Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

d. Ways to minimize the burden of information collections on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and

e. Estimates of capital or start up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be shared among the agencies. All comments will become a matter of public record. Written comments should address the accuracy of the burden estimates and ways to minimize burden including the use of automated collection techniques or the use of other forms of information technology as well as other relevant aspects of the information collection request.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of the Public Debt

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Bureau of the Public Debt, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of modification of privacy act system of records.

SUMMARY: The Bureau of the Public Debt (BPD) is publishing notice of a proposed modification of our Controlled Access Security System (Treasury/BPD.004) system of records, as required under the Privacy Act of 1974. The modification adds a new category of records maintained in the system and a new method of retrieving the records in the system.

DATES: Comments must be received no later than August 17, 2009. The proposed alteration will be effective August 26, 2009 unless BPD receives comments that result in BPD determining that the modification should not be made.

ADDRESSES: Submit comments to the Office of the Chief Counsel, Bureau of the Public Debt, 799 9th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20239–001. All comments, including attachments and other supporting materials, received are part of the public record and subject to public disclosure. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Amy Mertz Brown, Deputy Chief Counsel, Bureau of the Public Debt, (202) 504–3715, Amy.Mertz.Brown@bpd.treas.gov or Mary Schaffer, Attorney Advisor, Bureau of the Public Debt, (304) 480–8692, Mary.Schaffer@bpd.treas.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

BPD proposes to modify our system of records entitled Controlled Access Security System (Treasury/BPD.004) to revise the “Categories of Records” to include biographic and biometric information. The records in this system cover BPD employees, employees of contractors and service companies, and official visitors. We control and verify access to our facilities. As part of the access control, we may obtain and use biographic information (name, addresses, date of birth, Social Security Number) and biometric information (fingerprints, digital color photograph, height, weight, hair/eye color) concerning individuals. We also propose to revise “Retrievability” to state that records in this system can be retrieved by the biographic and biometric information. BPD last published its systems of records in the Federal Register in their entirety on July 23, 2008, at 73 FR 42904.

We have submitted the report of an altered system of records to the Office of Management and Budget and to Congress, as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) and Appendix I to OMB Circular A–130, “Federal Agency Responsibilities for Maintaining Records About Individuals.”

BPD proposes to amend its system of records number Treasury/BPD.004 as follows:

Treasury/BPD.004
