

Federal Government, the Library of Congress, the Government Printing Office, or employees of the U.S. Congress. Form LM-30 filers must ensure the maintenance and retention of supporting records for five years after the required reports are filed.

On July 2, 2007, the Department published a final rule establishing a revised Form LM-30, which dramatically altered the pre-2007 Form LM-30 (72 FR 36105). The information collection for the 2007 version of the Form LM-30 is currently approved by OMB through November 30, 2011, with an OMB number of 1215-0188. (Information collection 1215-0188 also includes the remaining LMRDA reporting and disclosure forms).

However, fundamental questions have arisen regarding the scope and extent of the reporting obligations under the 2007 Form LM-30 and remain unanswered, and litigation challenging some aspects of this form remains pending. The Department published in the spring 2009 Semi-Annual Regulatory Agenda notice of an intended rulemaking to revise the Form LM-30. The rulemaking is intended to review questions of policy and law surrounding the union officer and employee-reporting obligation and will focus on reporting changes resulting from the 2007 regulatory revision of the LM-30 form and instructions.

While the planned rulemaking is pending, union officers and employees must continue to meet their statutory obligation pursuant to section 202 of the LMRDA. In light of the unresolved questions regarding the scope of reporting required under section 202, the pending regulatory action, the pending litigation, and the statutorily mandated filing obligation, the Department has determined that it would not be a good use of resources to bring enforcement actions based upon a failure to use a specific form to comply with the statutory obligation to report under section 202 of the LMRDA. Accordingly, the Department will refrain from initiating enforcement actions against union officers and union employees based solely on the failure to file the report required by section 202 using the 2007 form, as long as individuals meet their statutorily-required filing obligation in some manner. The Department will accept a report filed on either the pre-2007 Form LM-30 or the 2007 form for purposes of this enforcement policy.

This information collection request is needed to ensure that filers have both options available pending regulatory action, and pertains only to the pre-2007 Form LM-30. This information collection is currently approved for use through September 30, 2009. The Department is seeking an extension of this information collection on the pre-2007 Form LM-30 through November 30, 2011. This date is the current expiration date for OMB Number 1215-0188 (all other reporting and disclosure forms).

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments that:

- * Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- * Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- * Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

- * Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The DOL seeks the approval of the extension of this information collection in order to ensure parties receive information required by the LMRDA and for the agency to carry out its responsibilities under the Act.
