

foreclosure. Provide documentation in support of this explanation.

2. General information about "remaining funds":

a. Define "remaining funds";
b. Detail the calculation methodology. The calculation of remaining funds may be performed on an area-by-area basis. In this manner, the state does not need to demonstrate that the requirements of section 2301(c)(2) have been met in all areas before the remaining amounts can be calculated, so long as funds have been programmed to meet the requirements of 2301(c)(2) in all areas;
c. List the dollar amount of remaining funds.

3. Designation of additional area(s):
a. Define "Areas with Homeowners at Risk of Foreclosure or in Foreclosure";
b. Delineate additional area(s) for the receipt of remaining NSP funds; include specific data sources to support that these area(s) contain homeowners at risk of foreclosure or in foreclosure;
c. Describe how the remaining funds will be distributed to additional area(s).
4. Information by activity describing how the state will use the remaining funds, identifying:

a. The eligible use of funds under NSP;
b. the eligible CDBG activity or activities;
c. the area(s) that will be served with the remaining funds;
d. the expected benefit to income-qualified persons or household area(s);
e. appropriate performance measures for the activity (e.g. units of housing to be acquired, rehabilitated, or demolished for the income levels represented in DRGR, which are currently 50 percent of area median income and below, 51 to 80 percent, and 81 to 120 percent);
f. the amount of funds budgeted for the activity;
g. the name and location of the entity that will carry out the activity; and
h. the expected start and end dates of the activity.

5. A description of the general terms under which assistance will be provided, including:

a. If the activity includes acquisition of real property, the discount required for acquisition of foreclosed-upon properties;
b. Range of interest rates (if any);
c. Duration or term of assistance;
d. Tenure of beneficiaries (e.g., rental or homeownership); and
e. If the activity produces housing, how the design of the activity will ensure continued affordability; and
f. If the funds used for the activity are to count toward the requirement at section 2301(f)(3)(A)(ii) to provide benefit to low-income persons (earning 50 percent or less of area median income).

6. Information on how to contact grantee program administrators, so that citizens and other interested parties know who to contact for additional information.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Central Utah Project Completion Act

AGENCY: Department of the Interior, Office of the Assistant Secretary—Water and Science.

ACTION: Notice of Intent to prepare an Environmental Assessment for the proposed conversion of Central Utah Project water from irrigation to municipal and industrial use and possible expansion of delivery area in Wasatch County, Utah.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to Section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, as amended, the Department of the Interior and the Central Utah Water Conservancy District (District) are evaluating the impacts of a proposed conversion of up to 12,100 acre feet of Central Utah Project (CUP) Bonneville Unit water, delivered to Wasatch County, Utah, from irrigation to municipal and industrial (M&I) use. The proposed water conversion could be implemented incrementally, and will involve up to 12,100 acre-feet of irrigation water that has been made available under Block Notice 1A of the CUP. The delivery area could be expanded to include additional land in Wasatch County.

The Bonneville Unit of the CUP was authorized to develop a portion of central Utah's water resources. Under the authority of the Central Utah Project Completion Act (Pub. L. 102-575), the Secretary of the Interior oversees implementation of the CUP and has authority to convert CUP water from irrigation to M&I use in accordance with the provisions of the 1965 Repayment Contract between the District and the United States. This water was originally developed for irrigation use in Wasatch County, Utah, under the Bonneville Unit of the CUP. Suburban development in the county has resulted in agricultural land being taken out of production, annexed into the cities, and developed into residential areas. These past and proposed changes in land use in Wasatch County, Utah, have resulted in a request made by the Wasatch County Special Service Area No. 1 to initiate a process of conversion from irrigation to M&I water use, and to expand the area to be eligible to receive CUP M&I water.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting Mr. Lynn Hansen, Central Utah Project Completion Act Office, 302 East 1860 South, Provo, Utah 84606, by calling (801) 379-1238, or e-mail at lhansen@usbr.gov.

Endangered and Threatened Wildlife and Plants; 5-Year Status Reviews of 15 Caribbean Species

AGENCY: Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of initiation of reviews; request for information.

SUMMARY: We, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service), are initiating 5-year status reviews of 15 species under the Endangered Species Act of 1973, as amended (Act). We conduct these reviews to ensure that the classification of species as threatened or endangered on the Lists of Endangered and Threatened Wildlife and Plants is accurate. A 5-year review is an assessment of the best scientific and commercial data available at the time of the review.

DATES: To allow us adequate time to conduct this review, we must receive your comments or information on or before June 8, 2010. However, we will continue to accept new information about any listed species at any time.

ADDRESSES: Caribbean Field Office, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, P.O. Box 491, Boquerón, Puerto Rico 00622.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mareliisa Rivera, at address above or phone: 787/851-7297, ext. 231; e-mail: mareliisa_rivera@fws.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the Act (16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.), we maintain lists of endangered and threatened wildlife and plant species in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) at 50 CFR 17.11 (for wildlife) and 17.12 (for plants) (collectively referred to as the List). The List is also available on our Internet site at <http://endangered.fws.gov/wildlife.html#Species>.

Section 4(c)(2)(A) of the Act requires that we conduct a review of listed species at least once every 5 years. Then, on the basis of such reviews, under section 4(c)(2)(B), we determine whether or not any species should be removed from the List (delisted), or reclassified from endangered to threatened or from threatened to endangered. If we consider delisting a species, we must support the action by the best scientific and commercial data available. We must consider if these data substantiate that the species is neither endangered nor threatened for one or more of the following reasons: (1) The species is considered extinct; (2) the species is considered to be recovered; and/or (3) the original data available when the species was listed, or the interpretation of such data, were in error. Any change in Federal classification would require a separate rulemaking process. We make amendments to the List through final rules published in the Federal Register.

Our regulations at 50 CFR 424.21 require that we publish a notice in the Federal Register announcing those species currently under active review. This notice announces our active review of 15 species currently listed as endangered: Bariaco (Trichilia triacantha), Calypttranthes thomasiana (no common name), capá rosa (Callicarpa ampla), Cook's holly (Ilex cookii), Chamaecrista glandulosa var. mirabilis (no common name), chupacallos (Pleodendron macranthum), Vahl's boxwood or diablito de tres cuernos (Buxus vahlii), erubia (Solanum drymophilum), Myrcia paganii (no common name), nogal (Juglans jamaicensis), palo de nigua (Cornutia obovata), palo de Ramón (Banara vanderbiltii), uவில் (Eugenia haematocarpa), Puerto Rican nightjar or guabairo (Caprimulgus noctitherus), and white-necked crow (Corvus leucognathus).

What Information Do We Consider in a 5-Year Review?

A 5-year review considers the best scientific and commercial data that has become available since the current listing determination or most recent status review of each species, such as:

A. Species biology, including but not limited to population trends, distribution, abundance, demographics, and genetics;

B. Habitat conditions, including but not limited to amount, distribution, and suitability;

C. Conservation measures that have been implemented to benefit the species;

D. Threat status and trends (see five factors under heading "How Do We Determine Whether a Species is Endangered or Threatened?"); and

E. Other new information, data, or corrections, including but not limited to taxonomic or nomenclatural changes, identification of erroneous information contained in the List, and improved analytical methods.

Definitions

A. Species includes any species or subspecies of fish, wildlife, or plant, and any distinct population segment of any species of vertebrate which interbreeds when mature.

B. Endangered means any species that is in danger of extinction throughout all or a significant portion of its range.

C. Threatened means any species that is likely to become an endangered species within the foreseeable future throughout all or a significant portion of its range.

How Do We Determine Whether a Species Is Endangered or Threatened?

Section 4(a)(1) of the Act establishes that we determine whether a species is endangered or threatened based on one or more of the following five factors:

A. The present or threatened destruction, modification, or curtailment of its habitat or range;

B. Overutilization for commercial, recreational, scientific, or educational purposes;

C. Disease or predation;

D. The inadequacy of existing regulatory mechanisms; or

E. Other natural or manmade factors affecting its continued existence.

What Could Happen as a Result of This Review?

If we find that there is new information concerning any of these 15 species indicating that a change in classification may be warranted, we may propose a new rule that could do one of the following: (a) Reclassify the species
