Needs and Uses: FCC Form 395-A, "The Multi-Channel Video Programming Distributor Annual Employment Report," is a data collection device used to assess industry employment trends and provide reports to Congress. The report identifies employees by gender and race/ethnicity in sixteen job categories. FCC Form 395-A contains a grid which collects data on full and part-time employees and requests a list of employees by job title, indicating the job category and full or part-time status of the position. Every cable entity with 6 or more full-time employees and all Satellite Master Antenna Television Systems (SMATV) serving 50 or more subscribers and having 6 or more full-time employees must complete Form 395-A in its entirety and file it by September 30 each year. However, cable entities with 5 or fewer full-time employees are not required to file but if they do, they need to complete and file only Sections I, II and VIII of the FCC Form 395-A, and thereafter need not file again unless their employment increases.

OMB Control Number: 3060-0176.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Agency Information Collection Activities, Proposed Collection Renewals; Comment Request

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

ACTION: Notice and request for comment.

SUMMARY: The FDIC, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on renewal of an existing information collection, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. chapter 35). Currently, the FDIC is soliciting comments on renewal of the information collection described below.

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before August 8, 2011.

ADDRESSES: Interested parties are invited to submit written comments to the FDIC by any of the following methods:

- <http://www.FDIC.gov/regulations/laws/federal/notices.html>
- E-mail: comments@fdic.gov Include the name of the collection in the subject line of the message.
- Mail: Gary A. Kuiper (202-898-3877), Counsel, Room F-1086, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20429.
- Hand Delivery: Comments may be hand-delivered to the guard station at the rear of the 17th Street Building (located on F Street), on business days between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m.

All comments should refer to the relevant OMB control number (OMB 3064-0162). A copy of the comments may also be submitted to the OMB desk officer for the FDIC: Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Proposal to Renew the Following Currently-Approved Collection Of Information

Title: Large-Bank Deposit Insurance Programs.

OMB Number: 3064-0162.

Affected Public: Insured depository institutions having at least $2 billion in domestic deposits and either at least: (i) 250,000 Deposit accounts; or (ii) $20 million in total assets.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 159.

Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Estimated Annual Burden Hours per Response: 80 hours to 75,000 hours per response.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 312,500-625,000 hours.

General Description of Collection: The FDIC adopted regulations intended to modernize the process of determining the insurance status of each depositor in the event of a depository institution failure. The regulations enable operations of a large insured depository institution to continue functioning on the day following failure; support the FDIC's efforts to fulfill its legal mandates regarding the resolution of failed insured deposit institutions, and apply to the largest institutions only ($2 billion in domestic deposits or more). More specifically, the regulations require the largest depository institutions to adopt mechanisms that would, in the event of the institution's failure, (1) Provide the FDIC with standard deposit account and customer information, and (2) allow the FDIC to place and release holds on liability accounts, including deposits.

Request for Comment

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the FDIC's functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the estimates of the burden of the information collection, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. All comments will become a matter of public record.

Dated at Washington, DC, this 3rd day of June, 2011.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Valerie J. Best,

Assistant Executive Secretary.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

[NOTICE 2011-07]

Filing Dates for the Nevada Special Election in the 2nd Congressional District

AGENCY: Federal Election Commission.

ACTION: Notice of filing dates for special party nominating caucuses.

SUMMARY: On May 19, 2011, a Nevada state court ruled in Nevada Republican Party v. State of Nevada, case no. 11 OC 001471B, that Nevada's Secretary of State may not place members of major or minor political parties on the special general election ballot until candidates are designated by their respective political parties. The Nevada Republican and Democratic state central committees will select their parties' nominees at Special Party Caucuses on June 18, 2011, and June 25, 2011, respectively. Due to this development, the Commission is issuing filing dates for these caucuses.¹ Committees required to file reports in connection with the Republican and Democratic caucuses shall file a 12-day Pre-Caucus report.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Kevin R. Salley, Information Division, 999 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20463; Telephone: (202) 694-1100; Toll Free (800) 424-9530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 12, 2011, the Commission approved the filing dates for the Special General Election in the Second Congressional District to fill the U.S. House seat in the Second Congressional District formerly held by Senator Dean Heller to be held on September 13, 2011. When the Commission approved the filing dates for the special general election, the special general election ballot was to be open to all qualified candidates, regardless of party, and the candidate filing deadline for ballot access was May 25, 2011. On May 19, 2011, the First Judicial District Court of Nevada ruled that Nevada's Secretary of State may not place members of major or minor political parties on the special general election ballot until candidates are designated by their respective political parties. The major political parties, Republican and Democratic, will select their nominees for the special general election at Special Party Caucuses on June 18, 2011, and June 25, 2011, respectively, and minor parties will select their nominees at executive committee meetings. Committees required to file reports in connection with the Special Republican Party Caucus on June 18, 2011, or the Special Democratic Party Caucus on June 25, 2011, shall file a 12-day Pre-Caucus Report.

Principal Campaign Committees Special Republican Party Caucus

All principal campaign committees of candidates who participate in the Nevada Special Republican Party Caucus shall file a 12-day Pre-Caucus Report on June 6, 2011. (See chart below for the closing date for each report).

Note that this report is in addition to the campaign committee's quarterly filing in July. (See chart below for the closing date for each report).

Special Democratic Party Caucus

All principal campaign committees of candidates who participate in the Nevada Special Democratic Party Caucus shall file a 12-day Pre-Caucus Report on June 13, 2011. (See chart below for the closing date for each report).

Note that this report is in addition to the campaign committee's quarterly filing in July. (See chart below for the closing date for each report).

The reporting requirements in connection with the Nevada Special General Election were published in the Federal Register on May 23, 2011 (76 FR 29750).

Unauthorized Committees (PACs and Party Committees)

Political committees filing on a semi-annual basis in 2011 are subject to special election reporting if they make previously undisclosed contributions or expenditures in connection with the Nevada Special Republican Party Caucus or Nevada Special Democratic Party Caucus by the close of books for the applicable report(s). (See chart below for the closing date for each report).

Committees filing monthly that make contributions or expenditures in connection with the Nevada Special Republican Party Caucus or Nevada Special Democratic Party Caucus will continue to file according to the monthly reporting schedule.

The reporting requirements in connection with the Nevada Special General Election were published in the Federal Register on May 23, 2011 (76 FR 29750).

Additional disclosure information in connection with the Nevada Special Election may be found on the FEC Web site at http://www.fec.gov/info/report_dates_2011.shtml.

Disclosure of Lobbyist Bundling Activity

Campaign committees, party committees and Leadership PACs that are otherwise required to file reports in connection with the special elections must simultaneously file FEC Form 3L if they receive two or more bundled contributions from lobbyists/registrants or lobbyist/registant PACs that aggregate in excess of $16,200 during the special election reporting periods (see charts below for closing date of each period). 11 CFR 104.22(a)(5)(v).

¹ The State of Nevada, through Secretary of State Ross Miller, and the Nevada State Democratic Party filed Notices of Appeal with the Nevada Supreme Court on May 23, 2011, to challenge the district court's decision in Nevada Republican Party v. State of Nevada, case no. 11 OC 001471B. The Commission cautions that the need for filing dates for these caucuses may be affected by a decision of the Nevada Supreme Court.
