

behavioral science, epidemiology, radiology, pathology, clinical medical care, health education, and surveillance. Members may be invited to serve for four-year terms.

The next cycle of selection of candidates will begin in the Winter of 2011, for selection of potential nominees to replace members whose terms will end on March 31, 2012 and March 31, 2013 respectively. Selection of members is based on candidates' qualifications to contribute to the accomplishment of BCCEDCAC objectives (<http://www.cdc.gov/maso/FACM/facmBCCEDCAC.htm>). The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services policy stipulates that committee membership shall be balanced in terms of professional training and background, points of view represented, and the committee's function. Consideration is given to a broad representation of geographic areas within the U.S., with diverse representation of both genders, ethnic and racial minorities, and persons with disabilities. Nominees must be U.S. citizens, and cannot be full-time employees of the U.S. Government.

Candidates should submit the following items:

- Current curriculum vitae or resume, including complete contact information (telephone numbers, fax number, mailing address, e-mail address).

- At least one letter of recommendation from a person(s) not employed by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Candidates may submit letter(s) from current HHS employees if they wish, but at least one letter must be submitted by a person not employed by HHS. Nominations should be submitted (postmarked or received) by October 1, 2011.

- Electronic submission: You may submit nominations, including attachments, electronically to JBlackmon@cdc.gov.

- Regular, Express or Overnight Mail: Written nominations may be submitted to the following addressee only: Ms. Jameka Reese Blackmon, M.B.A., C.M.P., c/o BCCEDCAC Secretariat, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 4770 Buford Highway, NE., Mailstop K-57, Atlanta, Georgia 30341. Telephone and facsimile submissions cannot be accepted. Nominations may be submitted by the candidate or by the person/organization recommending the candidate.

Candidates invited to serve will be asked to submit the "Confidential Financial Disclosure Form for Special Government Employees Serving on Federal Advisory Committees at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention." This form allows CDC to determine whether there is a statutory conflict between that person's public responsibilities as a Special Government Employee and private interests and activities, or the appearance of a lack of impartiality, as defined by Federal regulation. The form may be viewed and downloaded at http://www.usoge.gov/forms/oge450_pdf/oge450_accessible.pdf.

This form should not be submitted as part of a nomination.

The Director, Management Analysis and Services Office, has been delegated the authority to sign Federal Register notices pertaining to announcements of meetings and other committee management activities for both the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry.

Dated: September 2, 2011.

Requirements and Registration for Are You Prepared? Video Contest

AGENCY: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Department of Health and Human Services.

ACTION: General Notice.

SUMMARY: The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), located within the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) announces a new Challenge found at <http://www.Challenge.gov> to support National Preparedness Month. September is National Preparedness Month and HHS/CDC wants to know: Are You Prepared? HHS/CDC is challenging the general public to make a 60 second video that shows how you are prepared for any emergency and reinforces the key message: "Get a Kit. Make a Plan. Be Informed." Individuals and groups can enter the contests. Participants are encouraged to use creative ways to prepare for an emergency.

DATES: Submissions for this Challenge will be accepted through October 11, 2011. Winners will be announced on or about October 28, 2011 on <http://www.cdc.gov> and <http://www.youtube.com/CDCStreamingHealth>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

David Daigle, Office of Public Health Preparedness and Response, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1600 Clifton Road, NE., MS-D44, Atlanta, Georgia 30333, phone: 404-639-7405.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Subject of Challenge Competition

Emergency Preparedness Video Contest. September is National Preparedness Month and we want to know how the public is prepared for all emergencies. We are encouraging people to enter the Are You Prepared? Video Contest by submitting a 60 second or less video that includes our key message, "Get a Kit, Make a Plan, Be Informed." All submissions will be entered through the Challenge.gov Web site. This video contest promotes emergency preparedness and engages the public in innovative methods of preparing for emergencies of all types. HHS/CDC wants to engage a younger population that is typically not as prepared in preparation for all hazards. Information on the contest can also be found at <http://prepare/challenge.gov>.

Eligibility Rules for Participating in the Competition

The HHS/CDC Are You Prepared? Video Contest is only open to individuals, private or public entities, or groups that meet the following requirements: In the case of a private entity, the entity must be incorporated in and maintain a primary place of business in the United States, and in the case of an individual, whether participating singly or in a group, must be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States who is at least thirteen (13) years of age at the time of entry; if the Contestant/Submitter is under eighteen (18) years of age at the time of entry, the Contestant/Submitter must have permission from a parent or guardian. Contestants/Submitters must also have the permission of the parent or guardian of each person under the age of 18 who is seen or heard in the video. Employees and contractors of CDC and HHS are not eligible, nor are their immediate family members. The Contest is subject to all applicable federal laws and regulations. Participation constitutes Contestant's full and unconditional agreement to the Official Rules and CDC administrative decisions, which are final and binding in all matters related to the Contest, and can be found at: <http://www.Challenge.gov>. Eligibility for a prize award is contingent upon fulfilling all requirements set forth herein. An individual or entity shall not be deemed ineligible because the individual or entity used Federal facilities or consulted with Federal employees during a competition if the facilities and employees are made available to all individuals and entities participating in the competition on an equitable basis.

Registration Process for Participants

All participants must submit their video through <http://www.Challenge.gov>. Other entries will not be considered.

Amount of the Prize

There is no monetary prize given to the winner. Winners will be announced on or about October 28, 2011 on <http://www.cdc.gov> and <http://www.youtube.com/CDCStreamingHealth>.

Basis Upon Which Winner Will Be Selected

The winner will be selected based on how effective and creative their video is in addressing emergency preparedness information, specifically the message of "Get a Kit, Make a Plan, Be Informed." Other deciding factors are whether they mentioned possible emergencies (e.g., tornados, hurricanes, earthquakes) and if or how they incorporate the emergency preparedness Web site (<http://emergency.cdc.gov>).

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, HHS.

In compliance with the requirement of section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) is publishing the following summary of proposed collections for public comment. Interested persons are invited to send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including any of the following subjects: (1) The necessity and utility of the proposed information collection for the proper performance of the agency's functions; (2) the accuracy of the estimated burden; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology to minimize the information collection burden.

1. Type of Information Collection Request: New collection; Title of Information Collection: Early Retiree Reinsurance Program Survey of Plan Sponsors; Use: Under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (42 U.S.C. 18002) and implementing regulations at 45 CFR part 149, employment-based plans that offer health coverage to early retirees and their spouses, surviving spouses, and dependents are eligible to receive tax-free reimbursement for a portion of the costs of health benefits provided to such individuals. The statute limits how the reimbursement funds can be used, and requires the Secretary of HHS to develop a mechanism to monitor the appropriate use of such funds. The survey that is the subject of this PRA package, is part of that mechanism. Form Number: CMS-10408 (OMB 0938-New); Frequency: Yearly; Affected Public: Private Sector: Business or other for-profit and not-for-profit institutions; Number of Respondents: 3,130; Total Responses: 3,130; Total Hours: 34,430. (For policy questions regarding this collection contact Catherine Kelly at 301-492-4156. For all other issues call 410-786-1326.)

To obtain copies of the supporting statement and any related forms for the proposed paperwork collections referenced above, access CMS' Web Site address at <http://www.cms.hhs.gov/PaperworkReductionActof1995>, or e-mail your request, including your address, phone number, OMB number, and CMS document identifier, to Paperwork@cms.hhs.gov, or call the Reports Clearance Office on (410) 786-1326.

In commenting on the proposed information collections please reference the document identifier or OMB control number. To be assured consideration, comments and recommendations must be submitted in one of the following ways by November 8, 2011:

1. Electronically. You may submit your comments electronically to <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the instructions for "Comment or Submission" or "More Search Options" to find the information collection document(s) accepting comments.

2. By regular mail. You may mail written comments to the following address: CMS, Office of Strategic Operations and Regulatory Affairs, Division of Regulations Development, Attention: Document Identifier/OMB Control Number _____, Room C4-26-05, 7500 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21244-1850.
