

inspection. The notice of claim (NOC) was closed with a signed settlement agreement and prompt payment of assessments. STIL does not have any open enforcement cases. The motor carrier currently has a driver out-of-service rate of 0% and a vehicle out-of-service rate of 9.0%. Both rates fall well below the current national averages of 5.5% and 20.7%, respectively.

STIL is currently a hazardous materials carrier (registration #060210600018SU) registered with the Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Agency (PHMSA) and reports the transportation of 7 types of hazardous materials on its MCS-150 filing for its OP-2 (commercial zone) authority. The motor carrier uses a specific fleet of vehicles and a specific dispatch location for its commercial zone operations. The fleet of vehicles and the dispatch location for these operations differ entirely from the vehicles and dispatch location for the upcoming OP-1MX authority operations. STIL will be subject to the terms and conditions of the pilot program, and during the PASA process FMCSA confirmed that STIL will not transport placardable hazardous materials under the upcoming OP-1MX authority the pilot program.

To obtain additional information about the current operating characteristics of the company and to further explore the reasons for the carrier's high BASICs scores, FMCSA completed a compliance review on February 15, 2013. The results identified five violations: (1) Sec. 382.301(a), using a driver before the motor carrier has received a negative pre-employment controlled substance test result; (2) Sec. 390.15(b), failing to maintain, for a period of 3 years after an accident occurs, an accident register; (3) Sec. 391.11(b)(6), failing to require driver to furnish list of motor vehicle traffic violations each 12 months; (4) Sec. 395.8(a), failing to require driver to make a record of duty status; and (5) Sec. 396.9(d)(3), failing to maintain completed inspection form for 12 months from the date of inspection at the carrier's principal place of business). No acute violations were discovered, and the violations of critical regulations did not rise to the level of critical violation. The carrier received a "Satisfactory" safety rating upon conclusion of the compliance review. The Agency provided the carrier with recommendations for correcting the violations, and corrective actions will be verified when the Agency conducts another compliance review on the company within 18 months, as required under the Pilot Program.

A copy of the compliance review report is available on the Agency's Web site for the Pilot Program with the PASA document. The Agency noted some differences between information provided by the motor carrier during the PASA and the compliance review, such as vehicle and driver counts, mileage, and gross revenues. The motor carrier explained that they ceased some operations, reducing the vehicles, drivers, and mileage. The differences on revenue figures were the company's total revenue versus the revenue of the cross border operations.
