Background

On May 1, 2012, the President issued Executive Order 13608, "Prohibiting Certain Transactions With and Suspending Entry Into the United States of Foreign Sanctions Evaders With Respect to Iran and Syria" ("E.O. 13608"). Section 1 (a)(ii) of E.O. 13608 authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to impose on a foreign person certain measures upon determining that the foreign person has, inter alia, "facilitated deceptive transactions for or on behalf of any person subject to United States sanctions concerning Iran or Syria." Section 1(a)(iii) of E.O. 13608 authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to impose on a foreign person certain measures upon determining that the foreign person is, inter alia, acting or purporting to act for or on behalf of, directly or indirectly, any person determined to meet the criteria for the imposition of sanctions set forth in section 1(a) of E.O. 13608.

Section 7(d) of E.O. 13608 defines the term "deceptive transaction" to mean "any transaction where the identity of any person subject to United States sanctions concerning Iran or Syria is withheld or obscured from other participants in the transaction or any relevant regulatory authorities."

Section 1(b) of E.O. 13608 authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to prohibit all transactions or dealings involving such persons sanctioned under E.O. 13608 in or related to any goods, services, or technology (i) in or intended for the United States, or (ii) provided by or to United States persons, wherever located. These prohibitions cover the aforementioned transactions or dealings, but do not require the blocking of property or interests in property of the person sanctioned pursuant to E.O. 13608.

On June 3, 2013, the President issued Executive Order 13645 ("Authorizing the Implementation of Certain Sanctions Set Forth in the Iran Freedom and Counter-Proliferation Act of 2012 and Additional Sanctions With Respect to Iran") ("E.O. 13645"). Section 2 of E.O. 13645 blocks, with certain exceptions, all property and interests in property that are in the United States, that hereafter come within the United States, or that are or hereafter come within the possession or control of any United States person, including any foreign branch, of persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to satisfy any of the criteria set forth in subsection (a)(i) or (a)(ii) of section 2.

On December 12, 2013, the Director of OFAC, acting pursuant to delegated authority, determined that the individual identified below, meets the criteria set forth in subsections 1(a)(ii) and 1(a)(iii) of E.O. 13608,¹ imposed sanctions on that individual, and prohibited all transactions or dealings involving that individual, as described in Section 1(b) of E.O. 13608. In addition, on December 11, 2013, the Director of OFAC designated the individual identified below as a person whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to section 2 of E.O. 13645.²
