Background: In their request letter the Committees noted that the Commission is in the process of completing an investigation and report on India's trade, investment, and industrial policies covering the period 2003 through mid-2014 (Commission investigation No. 332–543, Trade, Investment, and Industrial Policies in India: Effects on the U.S. Economy). The Committees also noted the recent national elections in India and the formation of a new Bharatiya Janata Party-led government.

As stated in the letter, in light of the new government and the Committees' interest in receiving the most comprehensive and up-to-date information possible, the Committees asked the Commission to conduct a second investigation concerning any significant changes since the first USITC investigation to India's industrial policies that discriminate against U.S. trade and investment. As requested by the Committees, the Commission will include in its report for the second investigation:

- Information about any significant changes by the new Indian government to the trade and investment policies identified in the Commission's first report (which is to be delivered to the Committees by December 15, 2014); and
- Information on any new relevant trade and investment policies and practices in India, focusing on the period from mid-2014. The Committees asked that the Commission deliver its second report by September 24, 2015. The Committees also noted that they intend to make the Commission's report available to the public and asked that the report not contain any confidential business information.

Public Hearing: A public hearing in connection with this investigation will be held at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC, beginning at 9:30 a.m. on April 7, 2015. identify the name of the organization furnishing the summary, and will include a link to the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS) where the full written submission can be found. Any submissions that contain confidential business information (CBI) must also conform with the requirements of section 201.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.6). All written submissions, except for confidential business information, will be made available for inspection by interested parties. In its request letter, the Committees stated that they intend to make the Commission's report available to the public, and asked that the Commission not include any confidential business information in the report that it sends to the Committees.
