SUMMARY: Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and OMB Circular A-130, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") is republishing in full a notice of the existence and character of each FDIC system of records. FDIC is making minor editorial and stylistic revisions to make the notices clearer, more accurate, and up-to-date.

DATES: This notice shall become final and effective on October 30, 2015.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gary Jackson, Counsel, FDIC, 550 17th Street NW., Washington, DC 20429, (703) 562-2677.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, the FDIC publishes in the Federal Register and posts on its Web site a system of records notice for each system of records about individuals that the FDIC currently maintains within the meaning of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a. Each system of records notice describes the records maintained in that particular system, the categories of individuals that the records in the system are about, the purpose for the system, the intended use of the information in the system including any routine disclosures outside the FDIC, the safeguards used to prevent misuse of the information, and how individuals may exercise their rights under the Privacy Act to determine if the system contains information about them. FDIC last published a complete list of its system notices in the Federal Register on October 23, 2013, Volume 78, Number 205 (78 FR 63320). This publication may be viewed at <http://www.fdic.gov/about/privacy/> on the FDIC's Privacy Web page. With the present notice, the FDIC is publishing the complete text of all of its system notices to incorporate minor administrative and editorial revisions and to provide a current, easily accessible compilation. Information about the administrative revisions is noted below.

The Attorney and Legal Intern Applicant Records (FDIC 30-64-0001) system was used to manage applications for the positions of honors attorney or legal intern with the Legal Division of the FDIC. Due to the implementation of the Pathways Program (Exec. Order No. 13562), applications for the position of legal intern are now received through USAJOBS and processed directly by the Human Relations Branch of the Division of Administration. The System Name has been revised to reflect the new title, Honors Attorney Applicant Records (FDIC 30-64-0001), and the Purpose and Categories of Individuals Covered by the System have been revised to delete reference to applicants for the position of legal intern.

The Employee Confidential Financial Disclosure Records (FDIC 30-64-0006) system is used to process and maintain information to ensure compliance with applicable Federal Ethics Regulations and supplemental FDIC Standards of Ethical Conduct. The Categories of Individuals Covered by the System has been revised to clarify that the system also includes prospective employees.

The Online Ordering Request Records (FDIC 30-64-0031) system is used to process orders for FDIC publications and products. The Categories of Records has been revised to delete the collection of debit and/or credit card payment information because all available products are now provided at no cost to the public. The Routine Uses of the records has also been revised to delete the routine disclosure of information to Pay.gov formerly required in order to process debit or credit card transactions.

The Investigative Files of the Office of Inspector General (FDIC 30-64-0010) system is used to document investigations by the OIG or other investigative agencies regarding FDIC programs and operations. The Categories of Records in the System has been revised to clarify that correspondence maintained in the system may include payroll, telephone, and email records.

The System Manager and/or System Location has been revised to reflect current administrative responsibility for the following systems of records: Employee Training Information Records (FDIC 30-64-0007); Safety and Security Incident Records (FDIC 30-64-0009); Financial Information Management Records (FDIC 30-64-0012); Transit Subsidy Program Records (FDIC 30-64-0026); Parking Program Records (FDIC 30-64-0027); and Identity, Credential and Access Management Records (FDIC 30-64-0035).

The FDIC is not adding any new systems, or making any system alternations that would require prior public comment or notice to the Office of Management and Budget and Congress. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(11) and 552a(r); OMB Circular A-130, Appendix I at § 4(c)(1). More detailed information on the revised systems of records may be viewed in the complete text below.

The system also contains FDIC asset files, including judgments obtained, restitution orders, and loan deficiencies arising from the liquidation of the obligor's loan asset(s) and associated collateral, if any; information relating to the obligor's financial condition such as financial statements and income tax returns; asset or collateral verifications or searches; appraisals; and potential sources of repayment. FDIC asset files also include intra- or inter-agency memoranda, as well as notes, correspondence, and other documents relating to the liquidation of the loan obligation or asset. FDIC's receivership claims files may include all information related to claims filed with the receivership estate by a failed financial institution's landlords, creditors, service providers or other obligees or claimants.
