

designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest and that the rules are not designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

Based on the Exchange's representations, the Commission believes that eliminating the Rule 410B reporting requirement will not reduce the amount of publicly available information about securities transactions and that it is not likely to hamper the ability of the Exchange to conduct regulatory oversight of its members. The Commission notes that Rule 410B does not currently provide for real-time, publicly disseminated reporting of transactions, but instead requires non-public, electronic reporting of trade data to the Exchange on a next-day basis for regulatory purposes only. The Commission further notes that the Exchange represents that its members would remain subject to federal and Exchange books-and-records requirements²³ and that Exchange members would still be required to provide such trade data to the Exchange upon the Exchange's request. For these reasons, the Commission believes that the proposal should help to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, promote just and equitable principles of trade, remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, protect investors and the public interest.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,²⁴ that the proposed rule change (SR-NYSE-2015-48) be, and hereby is, approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.²⁵

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-76994; File No. SR-NYSEArca-2015-121]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; NYSE Arca, Inc.; Order Approving Proposed Rule Change To Provide for Price Collar Thresholds for Trading Halt Auctions

January 28, 2016.

I. Introduction

On December 7, 2015, NYSE Arca, Inc. ("Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² a proposed rule change to amend Exchange Rule 1.1(s) to provide for price collar thresholds for Trading Halt Auctions. The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on December 24, 2015.³ The Commission received three comment letters on the proposed rule change.⁴ This order approves the proposed rule change.

II. Description of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange currently conducts Trading Halt Auctions under Exchange Rule 7.35(f).⁵ To respond to market

³ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 76690 (December 18, 2015), 80 FR 80430 ("Notice").

⁴ See letters from David LaValle, US Head of SPDR ETF Capital Markets, State Street Global Advisors, dated January 14, 2016 ("SSGA Letter"); Joanne Medero, US Head of Government Relations & Public Policy, Samara Cohen, US Head of iShares Capital Markets, Hubert De Jesus, Co-Head of Market Structure and Electronic Trading, BlackRock, Inc., dated January 14, 2016 ("BlackRock Letter"); and Eric Swanson, General Counsel & Secretary, BATS Global Markets, Inc., dated January 22, 2016 ("BATS Letter").

events on August 24, 2015, the Exchange proposes to adopt specified price collar thresholds for Trading Halt Auctions.⁶

According to the Exchange, on August 24, 2015, it applied price collar thresholds to Trading Halt Auctions that were 5% for securities with a consolidated last sale price of $25.00 or less, 2% for securities with a consolidated last sale price greater than $25.00 but less than or equal to $50.00, and 1% for securities with a consolidated last sale price greater than $50.00.⁷ The Exchange states its belief that these thresholds were too narrow, but that it is appropriate to have protections in place for Trading Halt Auctions to ensure that a re-opening trade will not deviate significantly from prior prices, even taking into consideration natural price movements for a security.⁸

Proposed new Rule 1.1(s)(B) would provide that, when the Trading Halt Auction Price is established by Rule 7.35(f)(4)(A), the Limit Orders eligible for determining the Indicative Match Price would be limited by specified price collar thresholds away from the last consolidated sale price before the Trading Halt Auction.⁹ As proposed, the specified percentage for the price collar thresholds for Trading Halt Auctions would be 10% for securities with a consolidated last sale price of $25.00 or less, 5% for securities with a consolidated last sale price greater than $25.00 but less than or equal to $50.00, and 3% for securities with a consolidated last sale price greater than $50.00.¹⁰ These proposed price collar thresholds would be in effect until six months after the operative date of the proposed rule change.¹¹

In the proposal, the Exchange represents that it will be conducting an analysis to identify what changes, if any, would be appropriate to balance the need to allow for natural price movement in a Trading Halt Auction, while at the same time avoiding significant price deviations that would not be in line with the fair value of securities listed on the Exchange, which are all Exchange Traded Products.¹² The Exchange states that, following this analysis, it will propose to make the price collar thresholds in this proposal permanent or propose other or additional changes to its re-opening auction process.¹³

III. Discussion and Commission Findings

After careful review, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange.¹⁴ In particular, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,¹⁵ which requires, among other things, that the rules of a national securities exchange be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.

As noted above, the Commission received three comment letters on the proposed rule change.¹⁶ One commenter supports the proposed rule change and states its belief that price collars are an important investor protection, which will help avoid potentially clearly erroneous trades and strengthen market participants' confidence.¹⁷ This commenter also states its belief that the proposed rule change will help rebuild investor confidence in the efficient functioning of the marketplace in the wake of the volatility experienced in August 2015.¹⁸ Another commenter also supports the proposed rule change and states its belief that the proposed change will mitigate the recurrence of some of the pricing disruption witnessed on August 24, 2015.¹⁹ One commenter is broadly supportive of the proposed rule change and its proactive response toward improving market resiliency, and states that this proposed rule change is a step in the right direction.²⁰

The Commission believes that the proposed rule change, which would widen the Exchange's price collar thresholds for Trading Halt Auctions, is appropriate as an interim measure to protect investors and the public interest.²¹ As noted above, the Exchange will conduct an analysis to determine whether to make the proposed price collar thresholds permanent or to propose other or additional changes to its re-opening process.²² In addition, the Commission believes that the proposed rule change will provide transparency with respect to the Exchange's Trading Halt Auction process and enhance investors' understanding of the operation of price collars during Trading Halt Auctions. For these reasons, the Commission believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,²³ that the proposed rule change (SR-NYSEArca-2015-121) be, and hereby is, approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.²⁴
